During the past week I think I have noted in the press, signs that the British morale is beginning to give. Once that happens the end is near for England and Uncle Sam will be left holding the proverbial bag. And it is going to be a load. Why not give the old German nerves a walloping? It would not take many planes.

America must, under the circumstances, begin to lay plans right now for 1945. The idea of plans for 1942, 1943, or 1945 is all balderbosh. This war is going to be a long one. We are going to need men, ships, guns, planes and we are going to lose thousands of men. Blood will run like water. While the mechanized forces have run ragged through the armed forces of England, it will still be the infantry that will tell the final story.

America's efforts today are being expended in a mad scramble in trying to catch up to what Great Britain is doing. Britain is trying to catch up to what Hitler is doing. There is no offensive in mind. Only a wild endeavor to halt and hold the Nazis. It is an axiom of military affairs that to the force on offense is the advantage.

It must be taken away from Hitler. If it requires our navy—well and good. Turn the navy loose. It is better to throw our resources into this fight right now than it is to wait until England is whipped, the majority of the world's people cowed and cringing under the Hitler lash and we fight alone. That must not happen.

We should have a department of offense. It should give to the leaders of this war a co-ordinated plan of action by which every ship, plane, gun and man would have a definite place. No one would run their business like this war is being conducted. Something is radically wrong some place and I, for one, feel that our United State Senators are remiss in their duties, to their country not to find out what it is.

Big business discharges its incompetents and I feel that our government entrusted to the safeguarding of our nation; its people, its institutions and its liberties is the biggest business of all. If we are being led by incompetents, let them be dismissed and men put in their places who can and will carry on with efficiency and dispatch. There are laws by which that can be done.

There should be such an appraisal of Germany and her resources that we would know if she has new engines of war; if she has more powerful plane engines than we have; if she has new gases; what her grain supplies are; what plans she has. This could be done if there were a will to do so. It should all be under the department of offense.

I am fearful of the outcome under the present method of conducting this war. They say the German leaders are mad. Give us some mad leaders. They say Germany is feeling the pinch of want and I ask what it is England is feeling? They say America is going to build a bridge of ships—when? That we will send clouds of planes across the sea—when? That we will give the Democracies guns and food—when?

If this thing continues along the same lines under which it is now going, England cannot last this year and must surrender "the tight little isle". What then will be our fate?

I feel that it is a duty of this Senate to know what is going on and I for one would favor calling upon the national government to send a man before this body to tell what is the plan, its aims, what results are being attained and then let us know how we can help.

But above all, let there be formed a department of offense. We must think more of bombing and less of anti-air craft guns; we must think in terms of long range guns; we must think in terms of 70 ton tanks; in espionage instead of counter espionage and of the cracking of the nerves of the Germans instead of administering nerve tonics to our people.

Let's go America, while we have some nation to march with us or else we will have to march alone.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. JAMES and Mr. DEITRICK

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor, to lie on the table one day be dispensed with and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at today's session.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. JAMES and Mr. DEITRICK

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, I want to thank the Senators and others who have made possible a public assistance board for Northumberland County. We needed one badly. Now we have a board and we in Northumberland County will again have home rule in our public assistance.

Mr. President, I know the whole personnel of this board and now, although it is not a perfect board, I feel it can and will function to the best interests of the citizens of Northumberland County and the whole State of Pennsylvania.

I am firmly convinced this board will act in a non-partisan manner and as much as possible leave politics out of relief. That was my reason for previously having asked the Senate not to approve the other board and now I believe that fault is rectified and I ask that this board, as appointed by the Governor, be approved.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate advise and consent to the nominations?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 376, (Senate Bill No. 402), entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph (a) of section eight hundred sixty-five of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "The Penal Code," by prohibiting the sale of lubricating oil which has been used and re-refined unless such oil is clearly so labeled.

The PRESIDENT. The report will be noted on the Calendar of June 11th.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, where can we find a copy of that report?

The PRESIDENT. It is House Bill No. 376. The Chair understands there has been merely a correction in spelling, of one word.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, where is the report in our files?

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the gentleman from Montgomery the report will appear on tomorrow's calendar.

Mr. THOMAS B. WILSON. Mr. President, it will be on our desks tomorrow. It is their bill and will be printed by them.

The PRESIDENT. There will be no action on the bill by the Senate today. The bill will appear on tomorrow's calendar.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. EDMONDS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1173, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to purchase coal underlying the Cresson State Sanatorium and making an appropriation therefor.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1174, entitled:

BILLS POSTPONED

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 649 (House Bill No. 971), on final passage, entitled:

be postponed for the present.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not want to stifle the process of legislation here today but I do want to register my objection. However, Mr. President, I am not going to ask for a roll call. I thought, after last week, we were finished with that, and I had discussed various bills with several Senators and I had thought we had come to an agreement.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, as to this particular bill, I had a discussion this morning with one of the persons interested and he feels in two or three particulars the bill needs amendments. I think there is no objection to having the bill placed on the postponed Calendar until it is in proper shape for final passage.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, if that is the purpose I withdraw my objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 309, (House Bill No. 312), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend clause (e) of section five of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 1045), entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a Bureau of Rehabilitation in the Department of Labor and Industry, and conferring upon the Commissioner of Labor and Industry the power to supervise and direct the rendering of certain physically handicapped persons fit to engage in remunerative occupations; providing for the appointment of a chief of the bureau, subordinate officers, and employes, and furnishing suitable accommodations; and making an appropriation," by providing for furnishing artificial limbs to children over ten years of age go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I assume the purpose of putting this bill over in its order is so that it may be amended. Therefore I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny concerning this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill adds an amendment to the existing law which authorizes the furnishing of appliances to handicapped persons. The amendment adds "and to children over the age of ten." Is it the thought of the framers of this amendment that under the existing law children over the age of ten could not get these instruments.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I have not any idea what is the intention of the framers of this bill. There seems to be some question about this that needs further consideration, and for that reason I asked that the bill go over in its order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to place on the record, for the information of those who are considering the bill, the thought that this amendment restricts or narrows rather than enlarges the powers of the department. It is my thought that under existing law children over the age of ten years could receive these appliances but as it has been amended it would seem to me to restrict that provision.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 340, (House Bill No. 238), as follows:

An Act requiring cities of the second class A having fire departments to allow members of said fire departments twenty-four consecutive hours of rest each week and fourteen days vacation with pay each year except in emergency cases

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 All cities of the second class A having fire departments shall allow every member of such fire departments to have at least twenty-four consecutive hours of rest in every calendar week exclusive of the time when the change of shifts occurs except in emergency cases for the suppression of riots or tumults or the preservation of the public peace in times of war riot conflagration public celebrations and to have an annual vacation of not less than fourteen days without the diminution of the salary or compensation fixed by ordinance or statute

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—47

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 344, entitled:

An Act to amend further section five of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (P. L. 551) entitled "An act relating to roads highways and bridges" as amended by permitting the maximum width of a public road to be two hundred feet when the right of way is acquired by the Federal Government and providing for the cost of relocating public service lines.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill permits widening of roads beyond the present width of one hundred twenty feet, when the Federal Government wants to use them. There is an additional provision which I think complicates the situation. That is the provision "and provided further that where the breadth of a public road shall hereafter be fixed at more than one hundred and twenty feet and it shall become necessary to move or relocate any public service lines, the costs and expenses incident to such removal or relocation shall be paid by the Federal Government."

Mr. President, while I understand it was intended if the Federal Government asks for widening it shall pay for this cost, this bill now would put us in this position, if at any other time this Legislature should authorize the widening of roads for any purpose at all, the Federal Government would have to pay for the relocation of poles. In other words, the amendment is not sufficiently restricted for the future to provide that for roads widened for the benefit of the Federal Government, the cost shall be paid, but there is a general provision if at any time the roads are widened for any reason the Federal Government shall pay.

Mr. President, it seems to me that ought to be corrected and if it is agreeable to the members of the Senate I suggest that the bill now go over in its order until that point can be clarified.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 344, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

Section 3 This act shall take effect immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

An Act to enable tax collectors and receivers of taxes to make return to the county commissioners of unpaid taxes assessed on seated lands for certain years; and validating the liens of such taxes be postponed for the present.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 502, (House Bill No. 895), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to authorize counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, school districts, poor districts and county institution districts, to file tax and municipal claims, not filed within the time specified by law and to file suggestions of nonpayment and averments of default, or to sue out writs of scire facias on certain tax or municipal claims, and to revive judgments where the lien of such claims or the judgments thereon have been lost; and providing for the reinstatement of the liens of such claims and judgments

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 522, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 242), entitled "An act to promote the public health and safety by providing for examination and registration of those who desire to engage in the occupation of beauty culture; defining beauty culture, and regulating beauty culture shops, schools, students, apprentices, teachers, managers and operators; conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction; providing for appeals to certain courts by applicants and licensees; and providing penalties," by eliminating apprentices, and setting-up classification of junior operators; further regulating operators, junior operators and beauty parlors; setting-up new period for expiration of certificates issued by board; permitting beauty culture schools in certain cases to charge for materials used in giving treatments to the public and imposing penalties be postponed for the present.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny tell me why he wishes this bill placed on the postponed Calendar?

Mr. GELTZ. I will, Mr. President. It was because it was requested by some of the Senators, for the purpose of studying this bill further. There have been, as I understand, several amendments to the bill and it is quite different now than when it was introduced. Some of the Senators want a little further time to study the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, some weeks ago our colleague from Monroe, Mr. Crowe, remarked with reference to a bill: "it makes no difference if he is a hound, you must stop kicking my dog around." Certainly, that is true on this occasion. This bill has been in this Chamber now for four or five weeks, on the Calendar, and any member of this Senate who had the desire to study this bill certainly had the opportunity. It is a mockery if it is the intent of this Chamber to kill this bill. Let us call it up, and if we are going to pass it let us pass it. We are all aware of the fact we are about to adjourn, at least we hope we are. This is a Senate bill; if it should pass this body it must go into a committee of the House, and if it passes today, it will scarcely have sufficient time to pass over there.

I see no reason for anybody to say this bill needs further study. True enough, it has been amended and it came out of committee, and went back to committee and was amended in committee, amended on the floor of this Chamber, it has been on third reading since last Wednesday, and certainly if any member wishes to discuss any proposed amendments, I shall be too happy to have the privilege of discussing them in this Chamber. What are the amendments? Let us see them, If you have no amendments to make, that is a sure way of killing this bill. I would like to have an opportunity of voting for this bill, and I think many of my colleagues feel likewise.

Therefore, Mr. President, I ask that my colleagues oppose this motion and have the bill brought up for final passage and dispose of it one way or another.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. Roll call, Mr. President.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. HALUSKA. I ask that the roll be verified Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk will call the names of those voting in the affirmative.

The Clerk read the names of those voting in the affirmative as follows:

Bartlett,	Edmonds,	Kephart,	Tyler,
Becker.	Farrell,	Miller.	Wade,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Scarlett,	Watkins,
Order,	Heyburn,	Stevenson,	Wilson, H. L.,
Crowe.	Homsher,	Tallman,	Wilson, T. B.,
Detrick,	James,	Taylor,	Ziesenheim
Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I thought I heard my name called as having voted in the affirmative. I wish to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Westmoreland will be so recorded.

Are there any other corrections? The Chair hears none.

The affirmative vote will stand as verified.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to know how I am recorded as having voted?

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Lackawanna will know that when the verification has been completed.

The Clerk will now call the names of those voting in the negative.

The Clerk read the names of those voting in the negative as follows:

Barr,	DiSilvestro,	Letzler,	Ruth,
Carr,	Frey,	Mallery,	Shapiro,
Cavalcante,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Snowden,
Coleman,	Jaspan,	McQuiddy,	Stiefel,
Cox,	Lanlus,	Reed,	Thomas,
Dent,

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections? The Chair hears none. The negative vote will stand as verified.

Yeas—25; Nays—21.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Bartlett,	Edmonds,	Kephart,	Tyler,
Becker,	Farrell,	Miller,	Wade,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Scarlett,	Watkins.
Crider,	Heyburn,	Stevenson,	Wilson, H. I.,

Cavalcante,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Snowden,
Coleman,	Jaspan,	McQuiddy,	Stiefel,
Cox,	Lanius,	Reed,	Thomas,
Dent,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to make a brief statement with reference to Senate Bill No. 522, now placed on the postponed Calendar.

I am assuming the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz was sincere when he said the reason for placing the bill on the postponed Calendar was so that some of the members of this Chamber might have an opportunity to study this measure further.

Mr. President, I shall wait until tomorrow and then I shall call this bill up. If tomorrow they insist upon having the bill on the postponed Calendar, I shall then call up the bill every fifteen minutes until this session should adjourn or until such time that the bill will be either passed or sent back to committee, but after tomorrow, I shall rise on the floor and ask to call up Senate Bill No. 522 every fifteen minutes.

RESOLUTION FROM THE MIDWEST INTERSTATE ASSEMBLY

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is in receipt of a communication from the Midwest Interstate Assembly, which the Clerk will read and which will be spread upon the Journal.

Whereas, The Commissions on Interstate Cooperation of the nine Ohio River Basin States have, during the past four years, formulated the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Compact; and

Whereas, With the active support of the Cooperation Commissions, this Compact has been formally adopted by the states of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, New York, Ohio, and West Virginia; and

Whereas, The Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Compact has passed the House of Representatives in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is now before the Senate of the Commonwealth; and

Whereas, Action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is necessary to put into operation this important interstate agreement, which affects the health and property of thousands of citizens of the States of the Valley;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, That the Midwest Interstate Assembly urges the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to give its most sympathetic consideration to the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Compact.

MOTION FOR ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, it seems as though the Senators are going to waste another afternoon and I therefore ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCREESH offered the following resolution which was twice read:

In the Senate, June 10, 1941.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That this Regular Session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die, June 20th, 1941.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 39

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I am very desirous that we adjourn this session just as soon as possible, but we cannot fix a definite date until we get, among other things, a Congressional Reapportionment Bill, and it would be foolish for us to fix a definite date until we are satisfied that such a bill would be approved by both Houses.

Therefore, Mr. President, I object to immediate consideration of this resolution.

Mr. McCREESH. It seems to me, Mr. President, that the Senate is wasting quite a lot of time here. I do not think the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, need worry about reapportionment, because he is fixed O. K. I say to you, now, Mr. President, in all sincerity that there is nothing now before the Senate except the budget to be signed and we should close up the Senate and go back home, where we are badly needed, and do something about what might happen in the future.

The PRESIDENT. Since there is objection to immediate consideration of the resolution it will be referred to the Committee on Rules.

RECESS

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 4:00 o'clock, p. m. E. S. T.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION THAT SENATE SHALL TAKE ACTION NECESSARY TO BRING SENATOR ANTHONY CAVALCANTE BEFORE THE BAR

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1941.

Whereas, On June 5, 1941, pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives, a Joint Committee was appointed to investigate certain charges made on the floor of the Senate by Senator Anthony Cavalcante; and

Whereas, On June 9, 1941, the committee made the following report, which contained inter alia:

"Inasmuch as the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, the originator of the charges that a criminal conspiracy to unlawfully affect legislation exists in the General Assembly now in regular session, has failed, neglected, and refused to attend the several meetings of the Joint Committee, which meetings were duly publicized and to the latter of which the said Senator was lawfully subpoenaed;"

and

Whereas, In so doing he has ignored and refused to recognize the process of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, In concluding its report, the said Joint Committee stated:

"The said Joint Committee now reports to the Senate and to the House of Representatives that it will await further instructions and advice of the said respective bodies;"

and

Whereas, The above mentioned Anthony Cavalcante is a member of the Senate from Fayette County, and subject to the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the rules of the Senate governing members of that body; now therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Senate take immediately such action as shall be necessary to bring the aforesaid Anthony Cavalcante before the bar of the Senate and there instruct him to answer the processes of the said Joint Committee or for such other action as the Senate may prescribe in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of this Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. SHAPIRO. In view of the fact, Mr. President, that a number of the members of the Senate are not here, and some who are here did not come in until after the beginning of the reading of the resolution, I suggest, Mr. President, that this resolution be read again. The House has sent me a number of copies, and I shall be glad to give anybody a copy of it. I suggest that the resolution be laid on the table for a few minutes until the members are assembled.

The Clerk again read the resolution.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

MOTION TO ADOPT RESOLUTION

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the Senate adopt the resolution.

RESOLUTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I understand from the members of the committee that Dr. Mundy, one of its members, will not be here, and I therefore move that this resolution be laid on the table.

Mr. MILLER. I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think this resolution concerns Dr. Mundy, and it is not a question of how the committee feels. This resolution asks for an expression from the Senate as to whether or not the Senate is willing to adopt this resolution which has been adopted by the House.

Mr. President, I object to the motion that this resolution be laid on the table, and ask my colleagues to vote "no."

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I cannot see the necessity of injecting into this situation what appears to be some personal feeling. It does make a difference if Dr. Mundy is not here. Dr. Mundy was appointed as a member of this Joint Legislative Committee, as a representative of the Senate, and certainly he is entitled to that much respect from us, that we would consult him and the other members of the committee.

In addition to that, Mr. President, I am not certain, but from the wording of this resolution, it appears as though the House is endeavoring to tell the Senate what to do, and I do not think that is at all necessary. That is another reason for this motion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I disclaim any question of personal feeling in the matter. This is a House resolution, and if the gentleman is talking about referring this to a committee, a majority can always do that. This is a motion to lay on the table.

Mr. President, this Senate has been in session today, and I am here—I have great respect and admiration for Dr. Mundy, and I do not think if he knew he would object to the Senate considering this matter now, and it is for that reason that I object to having this resolution laid on the table because Dr. Mundy is not here.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, this is a very, very important resolution, and I think this resolution should be printed so that each member may have an opportunity to read and study it. We are not adjourning today. We have other business to conduct, and I think this resolution should be laid on the table, printed and placed on each Senator's desk, to give us the opportunity of studying it and then voting as we see fit.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. GELTZ and Mr. MILLER, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—31

Bartlett,	Edmonds,	Mallery,	Tyler,
Becker,	Farrell,	Miller,	Wade,
Carr,	Geltz,	Reed,	Watkins,
Chapman,	Haluska,	Scarlett,	Wilson, H. I.,
Crider,	Homsher,	Snowden,	Wilson, T. B.,
Crowe,	James,	Tallman,	Woodward,
Deltrick,	Jaspan,	Taylor,	Ziesenheim

Barr,	Dent,	McQuiddy,	Shapiro,
Coleman,	Lanius,	Ruth,	Stiefel,
Cox,	McCreesh,

PRESENT—2

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

MOTION THAT RESOLUTION BE PRINTED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I now move that the resolution we have just passed be printed and placed on each Senator's desk by tomorrow.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I say, Mr. President, there are about seventy-five copies of this resolution, sent over from the House, and I shall be glad to have a copy placed on the desk of each Senator.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. HALUSKA. Under the circumstances, Mr. President, I withdraw my motion that the resolution be printed.

SENATE BILL No. 889 CALLED UP ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I now call up Senate Bill No. 889, on final passage, page 2 of the Calendar.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 889, entitled:

An Act relating to the practice of veterinary medicine; defining such practice and providing for the licensing and registration of persons engaged therein and for the revocation and suspension of such licenses and registrations subject to appeal and for their reinstatement; defining the powers and duties of the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners and the Department of Public Instruction; providing penalties and repealing existing laws

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to say to the gentleman who just called this bill up, the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade, who is a co-sponsor of this bill with the gentleman from Luzerne, Dr. Mundy, I understood from the gentleman from Luzerne, Dr. Mundy that he has had an amendment he intended to offer to this bill. Since the gentleman from Luzerne is not here I hope that the same courtesy will be now given to him as was just given to him a few minutes ago, when the resolution was laid on the table, and ask that this will be permitted to go over in its order.

Mr. WADE. Is that an interrogation, Mr. President?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it is a request that Senate Bill No. 889 be permitted to go over in its order, in view of the fact that it concerns the same gentleman to whom a similar courtesy was extended a few minutes ago. The gentleman from Luzerne is very much interested in this bill.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I was assured by Dr. Mundy yesterday that he has no amendments to offer to this bill. However, he is a co-sponsor and with reference to the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I shall be very glad to accede to that request.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the gentleman from Luzerne told me yesterday, in caucus, that he had amendments he wanted to prepare to this bill and he stated he would have them ready shortly. That is my only reason for making the suggestion.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 889, on final passage, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am going to vote "no" on this bill because I still do not understand the purpose of exempting this particular class of people. I may be wrong but I have not had time and have not received sufficient information to make up my mind on it.

Mr. THOMAS B. WILSON. Mr. President, this provision exempts this solvent because protection is not required by the underwriters, and thirty-five different states in the union exempt those plants which use this solvent from this kind of inspection.

I might say, Mr. President, I have very carefully examined the matter since the question was raised this morning and I want to say to the Senate this provision is not a provision which exempts people who sell certain kinds of a solvent, but it simply exempts those who use a process that has been recognized by the underwriters and different states of the union as a safe process.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

The Chaplain, Rev. Donald McFall, offered the following prayer:

O God, our Father, help us to realize that because of Thy goodness we have been blessed. Make us ever conscious of the fact that we are our brother's keeper, and as such, must give a good account of ourselves to Thee. Open Thou the windows of our imagination that we may more clearly recognize the souls of others, and being conscious of this, may be desirous of embracing them in a better understanding and sympathy as they face life with its perplexing problems and sorrows.

Help us to see that it is kindness and loyalty in the hearts of men that brings its greatest reward of security and loyalty to Thee, to the State, and to the Nation. Teach us how to live lives of service. In Thy name we pray. Amen.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Mr. NAGEL offered a privileged resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1941.

Today marks a noted event. On June 10, 1869, the Stork delivered, C. O. D. to the home of one, Joseph Smith, in Westmoreland County, a lively, noisy specimen of the Genus. Homo. The heads of this Smith home at once decided to make this specimen a permanent member of their family and promptly named it Robert Francis, which name was soon shortened to "Bob"; and Joseph Smith assumed the position of Father. Bob grew and became an inspiration to his father who served as a member of this House in the Session of 1883 which session was popularly known as the "Million Dollar Session."

This son of this famous legislator has served as Democratic Committeeman of his county for fifty-one years.

This boy "Bob" correctly known as Robert F. Smith has spent the greater portion of his life in the flour, feed and milling business. Being an enthusiastic fisherman, he has cast his line into almost every pond and stream of our country and it naturally follows that he has hooked some giants and can relate some real fish stories that would put the expert to shame.

Mr. "Bob" Smith served as House Postmaster during the Earle Administration and is filling this important position during this Session. His effort to do his work in an efficient and satisfactory manner is manifest to all. He is liked and highly respected by all members and employees of the House, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives congratulate Mr. Smith on his successfully passing seventy-two mile stones in his earthly career, and that with this congratulation goes the wish and hope that his life and health may be preserved so that he may witness many more of these happy occasions; and be it further Resolved, That a duly certified copy of this resolution be transmitted to the esteemed House Postmaster Robert F. Smith.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1524, as follows:

An Act to amend sections one two three and six of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and forty-one (Act No. 17) entitled "An act abating certain tax penalties and interest on unpaid county (except counties of the second class) city (except cities of the first and second class) borough town township school districts (except school districts of the first class) poor district (except in counties of the second class) and county institution district (except in counties of the second class) taxes prohibiting the sale of real property for the nonpayment of any such taxes for a certain period and preserving certain tax liens and providing for the extension thereof" eliminating the powers of taxing authorities to reject certain provisions of the act making the act effective as to property upon which the period of redemption has expired and in certain cases permitting tax sales of real estate during the period of time such sales are prohibited by said act

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Sections one two three and six of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and forty-one (Act No 17) entitled "An act abating certain tax penalties and interest on unpaid county (except counties of the second class) city (except cities of the first and second class) borough town township school district (except school districts of the first class) poor district (except in counties of the second class) and county institution district (except in counties of the second class) taxes prohibiting the sale of real property for the nonpayment of any such taxes for a certain period and preserving certain tax liens and providing for the extension thereof" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 All penalties and interest imposed on unpaid delinquent county (except counties of the second class) city (except cities of the first and second class) borough town township school district (except school districts of the first class) poor district (except in counties of the second class) and county institution district (except counties of the second class) taxes for the tax year one thousand nine hundred and forty and all previous years assessed and levied against any parcel or parcels of real estate are hereby abated without the necessity of further action by the authority levying the tax if the unpaid delinquent taxes are paid as hereinafter provided (unless the authority levying the tax shall have notified the county treasurer within thirty days after this act becomes effective that the taxing authority has rejected by a majority vote the provisions of this act relating to installment payments of such delinquent taxes as provided by this section. In all cases whether or not the tax levying authorities have heretofore rejected or shall hereafter reject the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment the provisions of section two of said act which under certain conditions extends the benefits of said act to taxpayers and owners who pay the entire amount of such delinquent taxes at one time shall be mandatory as to all taxing authorities coming within the scope of said act.

In order to receive the benefits of the installment system of payment provided by this act twenty per centum or more of the unpaid delinquent taxes due for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty and for all previous years shall be paid on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and forty-one twenty per centum or more on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and forty-two twenty per centum or more on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and forty-three twenty per centum or more on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and forty-four and the unpaid balance on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and forty-five. Provided That the taxes on such parcel or parcels of real estate levied for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-one together with any interest and penalties due thereon shall be paid on or before the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and forty-one. And provided further That the respective current taxes on such parcel or parcels of real estate levied for the years subsequent to the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-one during such installment periods assessed and levied by such taxing authority shall be paid before they become delinquent. For the purpose of this act a tax shall be deemed to become delinquent on the date when a penalty attaches to the tax. If and whenever any of the said current taxes or any of the said installments are not paid when due and payable as herein provided then and in that event the total amount of the abated penalties and interest shall be revived and added to the unpaid taxes with the same force and effect as if such abated penalties and interest or portion thereof had never been abated and the taxpayer shall not thereafter be entitled to any further benefits or privileges under this act.

Section 2 Any taxpayer or owner having the right of redemption or person having purchased such real property from a political subdivision after the period of redemption has expired may anticipate the payment of such delinquent taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty and previous years at any time on or before November first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one by paying the entire amount of such delinquent taxes and receive the benefit of this act and in such cases payment of the taxes assessed and levied for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-one shall be required at the time of such payment.

Section 3 This act shall be construed to apply to all such taxes whether or not such taxes have been returned to the commissioner's office or to the treasurer of any city for nonpayment or liens therefor have been filed in the office of the prothonotary of the county or proceedings for the collection of such taxes have been instituted in any court in said county or where real property has been sold to a county city borough town township school district or county institution district at a tax sale or on a tax lien (and the period of redemption has not expired) but this act shall not be construed to apply to cases where real property has been sold other than to a county city borough town township school district or county institution district at a tax sale or on a tax lien and where the period of redemption has [not] expired the act shall apply only as provided in section two. The taxpayer shall be liable for the payment of all costs incurred except the solicitor's fees where such taxes have been returned for nonpayment or liens therefor have been filed in the office of the prothonotary or proceedings for the collection thereof have been instituted in any court.

Section 6 In order to enable the taxpayer or owner having the right of redemption under a tax sale to receive the full benefits of this act no real property shall be sold for nonpayment of taxes before November first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one unless the written consent of the registered or real owner thereof is filed of record in the proceedings and any tax sale shall be adjourned or readjusted or right of redemption extended as often as may be necessary for this purpose. If any tax sale is adjourned or readjusted or right of redemption extended after advertisement or sale no additional advertisement or notice shall be necessary for the adjourned or readjusted sale or right of redemption. No such adjournment or readjustment or redemption failure to advertise or hold any such tax sale shall invalidate the lien of any tax due and unpaid or sale had subject to redemption but the lien of all such taxes shall be fully preserved during the entire installment period herein provided for if the taxpayer avails himself of the privileges or benefits of this act. Provided however That herein provided for if the taxpayer avails himself of the privileges or benefits of this act the period during which payment of the said delinquent taxes is postponed or continued under this act shall not be included in computing and determining whether or not any right of the tax assessing and levying authority has been barred or lost by reason of the provisions of any statute or statutes now existing or hereafter enacted limiting the right of the said tax levying and assessing authorities to file preserve or maintain the lien of the said taxes.

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALTER E. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, at this time I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill was defeated some time ago. It makes it mandatory for political subdivisions to accept the provisions of the tax abatement plan. Under the former act they have the power to reject it if they find that the abatement plan will work out to the detriment of the taxpayers. Very few of the subdivisions rejected the plan. Those who have rejected it should be commended for their forthrightness in the position they have taken, and I think, gentlemen, we have no right to say to them they must accept the provisions of the tax abatement if they don't want it. I again recommend to the Members to vote down this bill.

Shall the bill pass finally?

THE SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, for presiding.

The Chair would like to inform the Members of the reason for his absence today. He received a Doctor's Degree on physical education.

I also want to thank the gentleman from Delaware for that great occasion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I had prepared a statement on this bill and a comparison of the bill as it came from the Senate and the amendments to the Unemployment Compensation Law that were made in pursuance of the study made by the Joint State Government Commission, but in view of the fact that the bill has been,—well I would say that the bill as it is now is an abortion because it does not in any way resemble or have any of the characteristics it had as it came from the Senate. The Democratic leadership might just as well have presented an entirely new bill rather than take Senate Bill No. 80 and amend it in the respect that it has been amended.

I realize that a measure of this kind in this session will undoubtedly go to a conference committee, and I cannot conceive that the Senate will concur in the amendments of the House, because so many of them are absolutely ridiculous. Many of them are based on an unknown quantity that may cost such a great amount of money that it might endanger the fund. I do not feel that the amendments proposed by the Joint State Government Commission are infallible. As far as the questions of the amount of payments or the waiting period are concerned, those are questions upon which we might have honest difference of opinion, but after the Joint State Government Commission has studied the Unemployment Compensation Law has conferred with innumerable groups of people, after it has called in all the agencies it could think of and has come to an honest conclusion as to the amendments to be made and then have it turned out as it has been, it seems to me is a legislative absurdity, and one therefore which I am not prepared at the moment to discuss.

I am confident it will go to the Senate and a conference committee. I believe there should be amendments to the unemployment compensation law. I am going to vote against this bill because I feel that the House committee in changing the provisions radically and wiping out provisions has changed the bill entirely from what was proposed by the Senate. That is a wrong procedure and certainly not an intelligent approach to this subject after such a study, and therefore, I am going to vote no, feeling that it will go to a Conference Committee, including the House and the Senate, and believing it may be worked out there.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, this House is now being possibly condemned because they sought to do some work on the unemployment compensation bill, because the majority party of this House promised to the people of Pennsylvania some amendments to the unemployment compensation laws to liberalize the law.

This House several weeks ago passed a bill amending and liberalizing the unemployment compensation law. The bill went to the Senate, where it was promptly put into a nice little pigeon hole in an ancient desk in some dusty committee room, and there it reposes without seeing the light of day. The House Committee on Labor decided to do something on unemployment compensation, because they gnaw that the Republican Senate refused to act on what the House thought was agreeable. The Senate received the House bill before it acted on its own bill, and lacking the intestinal fortitude to act on the House bill, they put out a concoction which they thought was an unemployment compensation bill. That bill was passed, adopting, I believe, in good part the work of the Joint State Government Commission of which the gentleman from Delaware was the chairman since the last session of the Legislature.

The gentleman has stated that he does not believe the Joint State Government Commission findings were infallible, and I admire the gentleman for his frankness in stating that there might have been some imperfections in their findings. It so happens that the House Committee on Labor in carefully studying this bill took the recommendations of the Joint State Government Commission where they felt those recommendations were on sound and firm ground. The gentleman certainly cannot have good reason now to complain that we have not taken all of the recommendations of the committee of which he was chairman, because what we saw was good in their recommendations we adopted. This bill was introduced in the Senate by a partisan committee made up of one Democrat and three Republicans; one member in the Senate a self styled expert on compensation in Pennsylvania and possibly in America; one the chairman of the sub-committee which handled the legislation for the Joint State Government Commission, one other Republican Senator, and the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, who was also on the Joint State Government Commission.

Senator Dent has authorized me to say here today that after the Senate Committee took apart a bill which he originally agreed to sponsor as a member of the Joint State Government Commission, he was ashamed of this bill and desired to withdraw any support he ever gave to the bill. I think with such a lurid history behind it, this House would do well to pass this bill and return to the Senate a bill that will be of benefit to those who need it; pass it and send it over to the Senate and show them that we are ready and have always been ready to put through liberal legislation. If you want this liberal legislation, vote on it; don't talk about it. Don't try to hold it up, but sit down and work out the proposition. I think if we enter into the proposition with that spirit we will probably have a decent liberal unemployment law for the people of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McINTOSH. Mr. Speaker, on February 17th of this year the Members of this House pledged themselves to cooperate with the farmers of the State of Pennsylvania in their efforts to obtain rural electrification. This bill was designed as a fulfillment of that pledge. The bill is an amendment to section 418 of the Public Utility Act which sets up certain limitations when a cooperative operates in the same area as the Public Utilities. The bill changes the present section 418 by changing the periods of limitations on the utilities and by changing the limitations themselves. Under the present section 418 there are two periods of limitations. The first period of limitation is when a cooperative files a joint statement that a majority of the potential users of electricity in that area have filed with the cooperative a map. Then the utility is barred for a period of six months from beginning construction in that area. The second limitation under the present section 418 is that when a cooperative obtains a loan from a Federal agency to further the purposes of the cooperative then the public utility is barred from beginning construction in that area for a period of twelve months.

This proposed bill sets up a third period of limitation, namely that when a cooperative files a map designating the area in which they are going to operate, the public utility is limited in its operation in that area. The limitations, as I have said, have also been changed. Under the present act the limitation was that the public utility could not begin construction. It is apparent that in the State of Pennsylvania as in the other states which have similar acts a utility comes in and constructs the lines and their contention, which may be legally correct, is that they are not beginning construction, but they are simply extending the old construction. This bill says they shall not construct; it covers extension of construction or any other type of construction.

The other limitation which is put into this proposed amendment is that the utility shall not compete with the cooperatives in any manner. That is, for instance, soliciting of customers during the periods of the limitations. The reason for this limitation is this, it has become apparent in the states that have cooperatives, once a cooperative is in its formative stage and it looks like it is going to be a going concern, it has been the practice that a public utility would go out and solicit the customers and construct what are called spite lines, and the construction of the spite lines raises the cost of the erection of the wires to the cooperative to such an extent that it is impracticable for the cooperative to continue. Of course, the solicitation of the cooperative's customers necessarily curtails the extent of the cooperative's activities. It is a matter of record which was brought out at public hearings on this question, that many people have testified that once they have signed up with these cooperatives the agent of the utilities would come around and tell them that the cooperative will not be a going concern, that is, it will fold up, and these people should sign up with the utility. If they fail to sign up with the utility then, they never will get rural electrification.

Mr. Speaker, this bill is designed to effectuate the purpose of the pledge that was taken in this House, and I predict if this bill becomes a law it will effectuate that purpose, namely, it will facilitate the extension of rural electrification in rural Pennsylvania.

I, therefore, ask the Members of this House to support this bill.

Mr. BAUGHER. Mr. Speaker, I want to give a few reasons from a practical standpoint why this House Bill No. 1482, giving further protection to electric cooperatives under the Public Utility Law, should be made law in the State of Pennsylvania. Being from a farm area and representing Adams county where I have recently observed the development of an electric cooperative, I want especially to urge the passage of this bill for the following reasons:

1. In 1936 the United States Congress passed the rural electrification administration act for the purpose of lending money at low interest rates for the building of rural electric lines which had been neglected by utility companies for one reason or another. In 1930, at the time of the passage of this act, one out of every ten farmers in the United States was privileged to receive electric service. Today, better than one out of every four farm homes receives the benefits of electric service. It cannot be seriously disputed that the R. E. A. has been responsible for this great advance. The building of these lines is done principally throughout the United States by electric cooperative corporations. Some of the credit for this advance must and does go to local State laws which make the incorporation and operation of cooperatives less complicated than ordinary corporations. Pennsylvania passed such an act in 1937 called the "Electric Cooperative Corporation Act." In 1937 the Pennsylvania Legislature passed as part of the public utility law, section 418 which protects these cooperatives against deliberate efforts of utilities to break up cooperative projects at their commencement. It is that section 418 to which this House Bill No. 1482 is a proposed amendment.

2. For the information of the House, I should like to say that there are in Pennsylvania thirteen electric cooperatives serving members in approximately thirty-one or thirty-two counties of the State. These Pennsylvania cooperatives have already constructed approximately 7500 miles of line. According to the best figures available, these Pennsylvania cooperatives have been largely responsible in increasing the percentage of farm homes receiving electricity from 23 per cent in 1935 to approximately 52 per cent in 1940. It is therefore clear that in Pennsylvania we have a number of these cooperatives performing an essential service for which they should receive all due consideration and protection from the law.

3. These cooperatives definitely need more protection than is afforded by section 418 of the present public utility law. To give an example, on January 30, 1941, the cooperative which has its headquarters in Adams county and has lines built in Cumberland county encountered serious difficulties with a utility in Cumberland county, especially in the area around Big Spring or Springfield, south of Newville. The cooperative developed a project in that area and was about to file maps with the Public Utility Commission under the present section 418 of the public utility law when the utility suddenly rushed construction through the cooperative project area and especially in Big Spring. As many of you may recall from reading the newspapers, approximately forty farmers and members of this cooperative banded together and prevented the utility from building into Big Spring in order to protect their project; because where a telephone line is on one side of the road and a power company line on the other side, little room is left for a cooperative line unless it passes entirely through the fields of the farmers. According to my best information, this "Battle of Shovels," as it has been called, was entirely the responsibility of the utility because its proposed line would be serving practically no one in the Big Spring or in the surrounding territory. The cooperative had everyone on its side and did not want the utility line to come through. The power company obtained its right of way partly by condemning properties and obtained other rights of way by falsely telling many farmers that the cooperative was not intending to come through Big Spring. This is an example of the methods used by utilities in Pennsylvania to defeat these cooperative projects. A careful reading of House Bill No. 1482 will make this rushed and unadjusted construction on the part of power companies impossible because the cooperative can file maps sooner with the Public Utility Commission and thereby prevent these battles. In Adams county which I represent, the utility there made several attempts to grab the best cooperative areas by rushing construction even though the people did not want service from the company because they had signed with the cooperative. I am advised that in many other parts of Pennsylvania, power companies attempt by the same and other methods to prevent the spread of cooperative lines.

4. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I want to point out that these cooperatives are undoubtedly performing an essential service. I know and have been told of a number of cases where well-to-do farmers have attempted for a number of years to encourage the power company to build electric lines to them. These lines were not built because a too high building charge was demanded by the power company. In some cases, it may be under $100.00 and in many cases the sum exceeds the sum of $100 or amounts to several hundred dollars. In addition to these building charges, the power companies are in the practice of asking the farmers to guarantee high monthly minimum payments. I know of some cases where $6, $10, $12 and $15 and more a month have been asked. Even prosperous farmers cannot afford to meet these terms. The purpose of the rural electrification administration act is to make possible service to these farmers at cost and without profit to anyone because these cooperatives are non-profit cooperatives. Practically all the people being served by these cooperatives are cases where the utilities wanted sums of money out of the reach of these people to pay. It is possible, however, to serve such farmers by cooperative non-profit projects. I strongly feel that we should take this opportunity for furthering the rural electrification development by passing this House Bill No. 1482 in order not only to make farm homes more livable but to provide power and other service to rural people which electricity can more conveniently make possible. In short, we owe it to the more unfortunate rural people of this state, to pass House Bill No. 1482. I might add, in conclusion, that in the interest of National Defense this legislature should pass House Bill No. 1482 in order that the United States be as far advanced in electric service and coverage as are such nations as Germany and Switzerland which are approximately 100 per cent electrified, while today we are only approximately 25 per cent electrified.

I want to urge every Member of the House to vote for House Bill No. 1482 because I am firmly convinced that it is one of the most important questions to be considered in this session of the legislation. Rural electrification means a great deal to the people of Adams county and I know it will mean a great deal to all the citizens of the Commonwealth. I ask every Member to give this bill a favorable vote.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL AND MESSAGE TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 663, together with the message from the Senate, which was laid on the table May 29, 1941, be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

The message was read by the Clerk as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 663, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Commonwealth to negotiate temporary emergency loans to defray the current and other expenses of the State government during the two fiscal years beginning the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-one; evidenced by tax anticipation notes secured by and payable from current revenues, levied, assessed, collectable, and accruing during such two fiscal years; defining the powers and duties of the Governor, the Auditor General, and the State Treasurer in relation thereto; providing for the payment of interest on and the repayment of such loans; and making an appropriation.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its non-concurrence in the Amendments made and insisted upon by the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, in all of the transfer bills passed during the Special Session of 1940 this House, under the control of the Republicans, along with the Senate and the Governor, pledged to return, during this month of June, the money borrowed from the special funds. During this Session, this House, under the control of the Democrats, along with the Senate and the Governor, pledged the return, during this month of June, of the money borrowed from the special funds. This was a solemn pledge made to the motorists, the firemen, the counties and the municipalities of this Commonwealth. It was made with full knowledge by all parties that in order to carry out this pledge it would be necessary to sell Tax Anticipation Notes and to pass the necessary legislation to enable the Commonwealth to sell these Notes. This is a procedure which is not new, having been adopted by the prior administration and having been carried out by this administration.

The Republican Party has made and is continuing to make every effort to keep this solemn pledge. On March 3 on behalf of the Administration the gentleman, from McKean, Mr. McDowell, introduced House Bill 663. In spite of the fact that I warned the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, to which it had been referred, and the Democratic Floor Leader, of the importance of this legislation, it was not finally released from the Committee until May 21st, nor passed by this House until May 22nd. By that time a substantial delay in the selling of the Tax Anticipation Notes was already brought about. The plan of the Administration to accept bids on June 2nd was no longer possible of execution.

The Senate acted upon the bill promptly, having passed it finally on May 28th, only three days after it was received by them. When the bill was before the House it was amended by the Democrats so that the estimated revenues were set forth as $426,000,000. I pointed out at that time how that amendment would jeopardize the sale of these Notes, and the matter was corrected in the Senate.

The House has failed to concur in the amendments made in the Senate and no action is now being taken. If final action on the bill is not taken today it will be physically impossible to float the Tax Anticipation Notes in time to repay the special funds during the month of June. It has been suggested that the bill be amended so that it will set forth as the revenues provided, at least $573,000,000, which is the lower estimate of the taxes already enacted into law. Such amendments I understand has proven satisfactory to the bankers and would enable the sale of the Notes.

The Senate, the Governor and the Minority of this House favor the amendment, but the Democratic leaders of the House will not act. As a result the Democratic Members of this House are wilfully and deliberately violating their solemn pledge to return these funds during the month of June, and by the abuse of their power as a Majority in this House, are preventing the Republican from carrying out this pledge to return the money borrowed from the special funds.

It seems inconceivable that the Democratic Members of this House will insist upon wilfully and deliberately violating this solemn pledge, and will continue to prevent the repayment of these special funds and continue to deprive the firemen, the motorists, the counties and the municipalities from the funds to which they are entitled.

It must be remembered that the failure to pass the Tax Anticipation Note bill not only delays the payment of all special funds but is also delaying the payment of all the deficiency appropriations, including the forest fire fighters and the distressed school districts, and it is delaying the payment to hospitals, to First, Second and Third Class School Districts and to state aided educational institutions.

The people can only conclude that the Democratic leaders are attempting to deliberately wreck the State of Pennsylvania, with the hope that the blame will be placed on the Administration. I do not believe that the people will be fooled.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, this particular measure after conferences has perhaps impressed me more completely of the uncertainty in which the Republican Administration has placed its sponsors and urged the passage of measures before this House. I have not forgotten that only a short time ago the minority leader of this House insisted that the figures which would appear in this bill must be accurate in nature. Since then I find that accuracy is not so greatly needed. I find also that apparently the most important phase of figures in the bill is the fact that the amount of tax legislation that is passed is going to be sufficient to pay back the particular loans floated. However, for some reason or other, for obstinate reasons, or for the purpose of making political capital or for some other reason unknown to myself, the Republican majority in the Senate insisted on substituting figures of their own. I say, Mr. Speaker, if anyone is responsible for the delay at the present time that responsibility rests solely with the Republican Senate. The sole responsibility, Mr. Speaker, the Republican Senate must assume in its present failure to give to the people of Pennsylvania the tax reductions that the Democratic Party is urging.

We have, Mr. Speaker, two indictments. One in which they, for facetious reasons, are causing a failure of the repayment of these borrowings at the present time. Secondly, the constant and wilful refusal to give to the people of Pennsylvania some measure of relief in taxation.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I think there are two things which the gentleman from Monroe said that ought to be answered. One is the question concerning the amount of estimates of revenue that ought to go into the bill. The gentleman is throwing dust at that and he knows it. As a matter of fact the estimates which were originally contained in the bill, as I pointed out at the time when the bill was on third reading, were the only official estimates available and were the estimates which at that time should have been included. Now, in inserting the amount in here, it is again using the only official estimate, disregarding, of course, the taxes which have not been provided for by law. That matter, as I have pointed out to the gentleman on the other side, was taken up with the bankers and the bankers agreed it would be satisfactory to buy these tax anticipation notes if the bill was amended as it was in the Senate.

Another thing the gentleman said, that the Senate of Pennsylvania must be responsible for the delay in the sale of the tax anticipation notes and in the passage of this bill. Mr. Speaker, this bill was in the possession of the Senate from the first day of the Session to this very hour, three days. Three days, this bill was in the possession of the Senate from the first day that this session opened until this very moment. Yet, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman on the other side has the audacity to say to the people of Pennsylvania that the Senate is responsible for the delay. I think that fact alone indicates to the people of Pennsylvania the deliberate effort on the part of the majority of this House to keep this legislature from carrying out their promise to the firemen, motorists and to the other people from whom the funds were borrowed.

I say to the majority on the other side that this responsibility to the people of Pennsylvania must rest on their shoulders.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 663

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I had intended to address the House this afternoon on a delay which the Democratic majority had occasioned on certain legislation, and for which I do not think they can escape the responsibility. I realize, however, that we have some important things that we want to do later on and the hour is late. I refer to the failure of the Democratic majority to release from Committee bills pertaining to sabotage, subversive and un-American teachings in our schools.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, instead of making extended remarks, I am going to ask that my remarks be received and placed in the Journal.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and the gentleman's remarks will be extended in the Journal of the House.

EXTENDED REMARKS OF MR. TURNER

Today the United States of America, your country and mine, faces a great crisis. The hour demands patriotic devotion and loyal sacrifice.

To meet this grave situation, to protect our system of free government and to insure to our posterity the liberties which we inherited, we must have a united front.

We are not a united people. There are not only subversive elements in our midst, who have been sent from without to disorganize, delay and confuse our people, but also within our own ranks are misguided and selfish groups who would set up controversies to break our unity, and cause industrial strife to hamper our preparedness.

I did not vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt for President. But he is now my Command-in-Chief. He has and will have my loyal support.

I did not agree with the course he pursued in the period leading up to the outbreak of war. However, that is in the past. My country is now endangered. This is no time to argue as to who started the fire. Our duty is to answer the alarm as a compact unit, with the spirit of teamwork.

The first need of the hour is the production of fighting equipment and engines. We cannot brook delay. What will it profit industry if it gains a dollar only to lose its plants, as they have in Europe? What will it profit labor if it increases wages now only to sink into slavery as they have in Europe? What will it profit our people to lose their country and their liberties while they debate the method to pursue for defense?

Unity cannot be fostered or maintained with illegal strikes. Protection cannot be secured when labor sues its machines. Defense must fail if the stoppage of work in vital industries is to continue.

This is not a question of the right of labor to strike. It is a question of the right of any man or group of men to set their personal feelings and beliefs above national security.

We too must play our part in promoting national defense and national unity.

This legislature has now been in session over five months. Bills of importance to national defense, national unity, and the preservation of our democratic way of life are buried in Democratically controlled Committees of the House.

In the face of my beliefs that my Democratic colleagues are patriotic Americans, the record shows that the Democratic Party, which is in control of the House, has gone on a "legislative sit-down strike" to prevent the turning of the machinery to pass bills as to sabotage, to prohibit the Communist Party from securing a place upon the ballot, to protect the future citizens of America from the teachings of foreign isms, destructive of the American system of government, and to remove subversive teaching and textbooks from our schools.

In the bills introduced during this session was one having to do with sabotage. The Attorney General of the United States called a conference in Washington last summer, out of which came a group of bills which he requested the Commissions on Interstate Cooperation and the Commissioners on Interstate Crime to present to the respective legislatures and to secure their passage.

Leaders of labor have told me that they are opposed to this measure. They believe that it has in it some elements that may be used against the rights which labor has in recent years secured. They also claim that there has not been and is not likely to be any sabotage.

My answer to those men must be that so long as the Attorney General of the United States, the chief law officers of our Commander-in-Chief, does not withdraw his request for its passage, it is our duty to ignore the requests of any group and to pass this legislation which was carefully drawn by experienced and talented members of the bar.

Against the protest that there has not been and is not likely to be sabotage, I point to the wrecking of foreign ships by their crews, and to the large number of big fires which have occurred in unprecedented number within the last few weeks. I offer this notwithstanding the assertion of the F. B. I. that there was no evidence of sabotage. Such large fires in such great numbers in such short space of time do not occur without cause. The papers this morning carry an account of a fire in a large plant in the South where they are working on defense orders. The President of this concern says it was undoubtedly sabotage.

At large in this country are over 8,000 foreigners who have been ordered deported but who have not as yet actually been sent from the country. Most of those are people with criminal records and many of them have been known as agitators against our government.

House Bill 452 was introduced on February 18th by the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner and referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special the same day, and it still rests there.

An identical bill was introduced in the Senate on April 2nd (Senate Bill 491), was passed on May 28th by a vote of 30-17. It was referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special in this House on May 29th, and still rests there.

The Governor in his budget message recommended an appropriation of $100,000 to the Attorney General for the purpose of investigating and preventing treasonable, seditious and subversive activities against the United States or this Commonwealth. This was likewise recommended by the Pennsylvania Bar Association at its mid-winter conference. On February 18th, House Bill 408 was introduced by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Royer, carrying this appropriation. It was referred to the Committee on Appropriations the same day, and it still rests there.

There was introduced in the Senate on February 11th Senate Bill 172, prohibiting the Communist Party from securing a place upon the ballot. This bill was passed by the Senate on April 8th by a vote of 48-1, and was referred to the House Committee on Elections, on April 10th, where it still rests.

On February 12th, I introduced House Bill 396 amending the Teachers Tenure Act to permit the dismissal of teachers for un-American and subversive teaching. This bill was referred to the Committee on Education on February 17th, and it still rests in that committee.

On the 7th of April, Senator Miller, of Luzerne County, introduced Senate Bill 518, which was passed by the Senate on April 21st by a vote of 48-1. This bill amends the Teachers Tenure Act to include as additional causes for dismissal un-American and subversive activity and membership in a political party prohibited by law. This bill was on the 22nd day of April referred to the Committee on Education, and it still rests there.

It is not important to the maintenance of unity and safety in our communities to have teachers who are sabotaging and boycotting the American way of life and national unity, excluded from our public schools?

Should subversive activities be tolerated and paid for from public funds?

All isms feed as parasites on the youthful and unsuspecting mind. Subversive teaching should be uprooted and eliminated from our schools, and that can only be done by permitting the school boards to discharge teachers who do so.

Just think of it! The American Federation of Labor takes the initiative to revoke the charter of one of its unions in Philadelphia because of subversive activities, because of Communistic leanings, because of an ism that is diametrically opposed to Americanism.

This is not a union of steam fitters, but a union of teachers.

If labor leaders cannot stomach them, why should legislators refuse to give school boards the right to eliminate such teachers from the schools when the acts provide for proper appeal to the courts if this is used improperly?

What is the matter with the school administration in Philadelphia? For almost six years patriotic organizations have been calling the attention of the officials in that city to the prevalence of Communistic and subversive elements in the ranks of its teachers.

The American Federation of Labor could prove that a Union in which some of the teachers were members was infested with Communistic leadership, and yet those responsible for the administration of the system had made no move. Not only is a portion of the teaching staff infected, but I have been reliably informed that employees of the Department of Public Assistance in that city likewise follow the same sort of leadership.

Again I ask how can we draft the youth of America to prepare to defend our liberties if we allow the seed of disunion, disorganization, and disintegration to be sown among the civilian population, while you who have the instruments at hand with which to disinfect it, fail to do your part.

Is the Democratic leadership so fearful of those pressure groups that it dare not submit this legislation to the membership? Does the Democratic leadership, like Secretary of Labor Perkins, have such a tender feeling for these insects that it would rather risk the destruction of our government by them than to stamp them out?

For America to remain free, she must be strong. To be strong, she must stamp out every agency that would undermine the faith of our people in its government and throw monkey-wrenches into the defense machinery.

The Supreme Court of the United States, the great Unions which represent labor, and public opinion have outlawed sit-down strikes. Will the Democratic leadership now outlaw this legislative sit-down strike?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, yesterday the special committee of the House and Senate that was appointed by our respective bodies for the purpose of investigating the truth or falsity of certain allegations made by Senator Cavalcante of Fayette County on the floor of the Senate, reported back to this House that Senator Cavalcante had refused and neglected to comply with the request of the Committee as well as to obey the subpoena to appear before the Committee for the purpose of giving testimony. That Committee then asked this House for further instructions.

In pursuance to that thought, and in pursuance to that request I feel that it is mandatory upon this House to give free expression to its thought in relation to the procedure to be followed at the present time. Were the man who refused to obey the subpoena a member of this House, I would say without hesitancy that it was the duty of this House to proceed to the end of enforcing its subpoena. It so happens that in the instant case the member who refused to appear before the Committee is a member of the Senate and consequently I believe and I think the members of this House believe, that it becomes a paramount duty on the part of the Senate to see that senator Cavalcante is duly brought before the Senate to the end that he be made to comply with the subpoena, or upon his failure to do so that proper and fitting punishment be meted out to him.

Mr. Speaker, there is ample law upon the books, sufficient precedents to warrant that particular action. Added to that there are several cases decided by the Supreme Court as well as the authority of this House and the Senate, that the immunity the Senator claims is not available to him, because immunity as a Senator, or as a member of the House for that matter, is confined to only a limited and very restricted field. I believe, Mr. Speaker, therefore, that it is the duty of this House to urge upon the Senate that they, the Senate, proceed immediately and expeditiously to the end that the man who made the charges be brought before the Committee and, Mr. Speaker, I ask consent of the House at this time to present a resolution and I move, Mr. Speaker, for its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

INVESTIGATION OF CHARGES MADE IN SENATE

Mr. ACHTERMAN offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1941.

Whereas, on June 5, pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives, a joint committee was appointed to investigate certain charges made on the floor of the Senate by Senator Anthony Cavalcante; and

Whereas, on June 9, 1941, the committee made the following report, which contained inter alia:

"Inasmuch as the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, the originator of the charges that a criminal conspiracy to unlawfully affect legislation exists in the General Assembly now in regular session, has failed, neglected, and refused to attend the several meetings of the Joint Committee, which meetings were duly publicized and to the latter of which the said Senator was lawfully subpoenaed;" and

Whereas, in so doing he has ignored and refused to recognize the process of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, in concluding its report, the said joint committee stated:

"The said Joint Committee now reports to the Senate and to the House of Representatives that it will await further instruction and advice of the said respective bodies;" and

Whereas, The above mentioned Anthony Cavalcante is a member of the Senate from Fayette County, and subject to the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the rules of the Senate governing members of that body; now therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Senate take immediately such action as shall be necessary to bring the aforesaid Anthony Cavalcante before the bar of the Senate and there instruct him to answer the processes of the said Joint Committee or for such other action as the Senate may prescribe in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of this Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, we have been following the practice of not objecting to giving unanimous consent for the consideration of resolutions, particularly those that were presented by the majority floor leader, and I did not want to object to the immediate consideration of this resolution. However, we have here a matter of extreme importance as it relates to the procedure of the House and the Senate in a very important matter. It seems to me to be asked to vote on a resolution of this kind without any further consideration is asking almost too much of the Members of this House.

As I understand it, the Committee appointed to make the investigation reported back and requested further instructions. Now, as I understand the gentleman from Monroe, this resolution is in answer to their request for further instructions, but the resolution is not directed to the members of the Committee, and as I understand, it does not give them any further instructions. Instead we have here in this resolution a suggestion by the House, or a recommendation by this House as to what action the Senate shall take in this matter. It seems to me to be a rather unusual proceedings for one body of the legislature to direct and suggest to another body of the legislature what action the other body of the legislature should take. I realize, Mr. Speaker, we are in a rather peculiar situation here. We have here a joint committee appointed by a concurrent resolution of both the House and the Senate. I do not know what the technical rights of the committee are in reference to subpoenaing a Member of the Senate. I am not able to debate here at this time the power the House might have over the senator in this case. It would seem to me however from a hasty reading of the section of the constitution which seems to be involved that probably the House of Representatives has no right whatsoever concerning the control of punishment for a senator's failure to answer a subpoena, or for failure to answer all questions which may be put to him in connection with statements he made on the floor of the Senate. I may be wrong about that but offhand that is my opinion in the matter.

It also seems to me that this is a matter that under the constitution is solely in the hands of the Senate, and that the Senator will be compelled to account to the Senate of Pennsylvania for the things he has said.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, it seems rather strange for the House to tell the Senate what action they shall take in this matter. I did not have an opportunity to read this resolution until it was introduced, I have not been able to study the matter thoroughly, I admit it is a very technical one and it seems to me to be one that ought to receive the earnest consideration of all the Members of the House. For that reason it would be only fair to lay this resolution on the table, for a short time at least, to give the Members an opportunity to consider it. I would suggest that it be laid upon the table until tomorrow to give the Members of the House an opportunity to thoroughly consider this matter and determine whether it is the best procedure under all the circumstances. I do not think in any way the investigation by this committee should be interfered with; I believe it should be carried out, but I do feel that it is important to this House in establishing a procedure which may be followed in the future to do it the right way, the way the Constitution provides, the way the rules of this House provide and the way that is best in an orderly governmental manner.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I am going to suggest to the gentleman on the other side that he permit this resolution to be laid on the table until tomorrow so that all of the Members of this body may have an opportunity to carefully read it and consider the various technical angles involved.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, may I state for the information of the minority leader and the Members of the House that the committee itself was appointed by the two houses and has the power to issue subpoenas, but it does not have the power to enforce them. I believe that an examination of the Constitution and the rules under which this House and the Senate both operate and the authorities stated in Jefferson's Manual will clearly and definitely disclose that the place for the enforcement of the subpoena in the instant case is in the Senate.

It has been stated by the gentleman that this is an extraordinary proceeding on the part of this House in reply to the request of the committee for further instructions. True, we might have said to the committee, "You present a motion or resolution to the Senate,—to the Senate members," but we feel that this is an extraordinary case. It must not be forgotten that Senator Cavalcante made direct accusations against a specific Member of this House. That Member has a right to have his name cleared, and Senator Cavalcante has no right to refuse to go before the Committee and disclose what information he may have as to that particular Member of this House. If he was talking loosely we have a right to know; if he has information that the man has done what he claims he did, then certainly it is the duty of this House to proceed. Senator Cavalcante has no right to refuse the subpoena of the committee in a matter of as great importance as this, and this House cannot sit idly by and permit the Senate to conduct itself in the manner it did last evening. For what purpose? It is difficult to say. It is quite evident, however, that they had no desire to have the Senator testify.

I might say Mr. Speaker, that the integrity of this House has been attacked. This House should move in so far as it can move, and it should petition, so far as it can petition, the Senate, that it, the Senate, lend its help, every help, every aid, so that the matter can be thoroughly investigated, and no individual Senator or group of Senators has the right to deny that request. They have no right, Mr. Speaker, to say to the people of Pennsylvania, "We will protect this Senator who has made the accusations and allow members to sit in the House and Senate who, if the information were handed out, would be denied their seats," or be in a position to say, "Here is a Senator who in an irresponsible moment, without any thought of what he was doing to the reputation of an honorable and honest man, with no thought of anyone else but himself, made those statements in the Senate which can not help but be roundly condemned."

Under those conditions, I feel that this House should not delay, that the honor and integrity of this House are of paramount importance and that we should move promptly for their protection.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, there are many things which the gentleman on the other side has said with which I agree. I think his statement that the matter of punishment is entirely within the hands of the Senate is a correct statement of the law; at least that has been my understanding of it. I agree with the gentleman further that any charges made against any Member of this House, as there apparently was, ought to be thoroughly investigated and that the Member of this House has the right to insist upon a thorough investigation. I do not say this in opposition to this resolution necessarily, because frankly after careful consideration of all the angles of the matter, it might be that we would be very anxious to support this very resolution. I cannot say that, but it occurs to me at the present time, however, that the procedure is rather strange to have the House tell the Senate exactly how to proceed in this matter. It seems to me that that is what is being done.

There is another matter that immediately arises in my mind. The gentleman says that the House has a right to suggest to the Senate. Maybe we do have a right to pass a resolution suggesting to the Senate that it is the consensus of opinion of this House that such a thing ought to be done. I think inasmuch as one of our Members is involved and specifically named in connection with the charges, that probably the House might properly pass some sort of a resolution making some recommendation to the Senate. I do not say that is true or not true. It seems to me it is a matter that may be worthy of serious consideration; but as I understand this resolution, it is a concurrent resolution, and we have the still stranger situation of the House and the Senate passing a resolution directing the Senate what to do in this particular matter.

The whole thing seems to me to be not thoroughly thought out. That is the reason I am not asking anybody to vote against this resolution, but I am merely asking the gentleman on the other side to give us a little time to consider the resolution, time to look into some of the questions of procedure involved and to give the matter careful consideration. I am not speaking against the resolution, I am only asking, due to the fact that it is a strange procedure, and we do not have any previous cases of this kind to my recollection, that therefore we ought to be careful that we are proceeding in the right manner, and we ought to have time to give it consideration.

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move to lay the resolution on the table, and I ask the gentleman on the other side whether he will kindly go along on this motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. Brown. Mr. Speaker, it is permissible to ask the maker of the motion to withdraw his motion for a brief moment?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin withdraw his motion?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin withdraws his motion.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, this is an important resolution and a most extraordinary procedure. I think we ought to be right, or as nearly right as we can possibly be, in a matter of this kind. There are doubts in the minds of some of us as to the procedure that has been followed thus far. Of course, when we act under pressure and act hastily in matters that are as basic as this one is we are liable to make mistakes, although we intend to do the proper thing. The thought that occurred to me when hearing the resolution read, and of course I had to catch it hastily as the clerk read it, was that the resolution is not in proper form because it is a concurrent resolution in which we are asking the Senate to do something, and then we must get their consent before they can concur in the resolution.

Mr. Speaker. I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman the majority floor leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, this, as I understand it, is a concurrent resolution; is that correct?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman from Monroe feel that the request we make would be proper and in better form if it were a resolution of the House rather than a concurrent resolution?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Not necessarily so, Mr. Speaker. I have no doubt that a resolution adopted by the House that is not concurrent would be proper, but to say that is the only proper course would be begging the point. If we had not had the extraordinary proceeding that occurred on the Senate floor last night I would say that undoubtedly a resolution from this House would have been the better course to pursue, but it became so evident to me and I think to everyone who listened, that the Senate is not as desirous of proceeding with the investigation as it once was. I feel, Mr. Speaker, under those conditions that we should have an expression from the Senate, and that expression can best be procured through a concurrent resolution.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Monroe be willing to amend this resolution so that it would be a House resolution rather than a concurrent resolution? Of course, I ask that for this reason, we are not all familiar with what happened on the floor of the Senate last night and I do see where it is of any major concern to have a request coming from this House. I do not think we have any right to put in a resolution of this kind asking the Senate to bind itself to something which they have already failed to do, if I understand the remarks of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot agree with the suggestion of the gentleman from Allegheny to amend this resolution to make it only a House resolution. Perhaps the excuse of the Senate might be that there was some doubt as to the method of procedure against the Senator when he refused to testify and ignored the subpoena. However, the method is clear and there should be no doubt about it. They have had now about twenty-four hours to consider the fiasco of last evening and I think this particular resolution in concurrent form is going to crystalize the subject in the Senate. I believe a House resolution alone would be received and spread upon the minutes and that would be the end of it.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me whether or not I am correct in saying that the gist of this resolution is that the House is asking the Senate to utilize all of its Constitutional powers to compel the attendance of Senator Cavalcante at the meeting of the Joint Committee, is that correct?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, that is concretely correct, yes.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is that the only purpose of the resolution?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. That is the purpose, to place the Senate on notice that this House feel it is the Senate's duty to proceed, and the additional reason they exercise their constitutional rights and powers.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Monroe.

It may be that haste is necessary in this matter. I imagine the majority floor leader has had more chance to study this question than any of us. I do not think any of us knew that such a resolution was going to be presented. It seems to me this procedure is not the proper one at this time. If I understand this resolution, we are asking the Senate to utilize its powers, and I presume that means the powers given to it under Article 2, section 11 of the Constitution, which provides that each House shall be the judge of the conduct of each of its members. It does seem to me from a first reading and from a very hasty perusal of the resolution that the better procedure would be that we simply ask the Senate to utilize its powers, rather than have the Senate join in a resolution powers which I do not think we can join in a joint resolution. I may be wrong, but I think we ought to be right in this matter. If there is any question about it, we should be sure we are right. In a question so unusual as this one, our procedure which may be a precedent, should be established with caution, and after all the knowledge that can be brought to the question has been brought into view.

Mr. Speaker, whether or not the gentleman from Monroe will agree to lay the resolution on the table or amend the resolution is a question solely with him, but I think we ought to have some little opportunity to see whether or not our procedure is right and unless that opportunity is granted I for one intend to vote against the resolution.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the resolution be laid upon the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, may I say with reference to remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, not only as to the time that we should have to consider a resolution of this kind, but also in reference to the fact that we had to gather what was in the resolution from merely hearing it read, I think indicates all the more reason why in fairness to all the Members, this resolution should be laid upon the table temporarily.

I feel I have had an advantage over the other Members of this House, because the majority floor leader very kindly and graciously gave me a copy of the resolution and I and two or three around me in the corner here had an opportunity to follow it as it was read by the Clerk, but the rest of the Members of the House on both sides have not had an opportunity to examine it. I am sure many of them would be interested; many of them might have some constructive suggestions concerning the proper procedure. For that reason it seems to me, in fairness to the Members on both sides, the gentleman should not object to the motion to lay on the table until tomorrow.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, both speakers in asking that the resolution be laid upon the table, apparently have lost sight of the fact that this is purely an expression of thought on the part of the House to the Senate. It represents in no manner a proceeding by the House against the Senator who failed to comply with the subpoena. It is our expression to the Senate solely. The question as to whether we can or cannot express ourselves to the end that we ask the Senate to proceed properly and expeditiously, does that need consideration? Does it need consideration that the honor and integrity of this House should be protected? I am at a loss to understand what the gentleman means. In fact that is all this resolution is doing; it is saying to the Senate, "proceed promptly to investigate these charges." If men are stating things they have no right to say, we want to know it. If men have been charged falsely, then they should be cleared. No one should be permitted to tear down someone's name. This resolution is not a proceeding against the Senator, but is only an expression on the part of the House to the Senate. The question whether this proceeding is in order or not certainly does not enter into the problem at all. It is solely in the form of adopting a resolution asking the Senate to act. Under those conditions I cannot agree with the motion of the gentleman from Dauphin, nor can I accede to the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to prolong this debate, but at the same time it seems to me after what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, has said he thought was in the resolution, what the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, himself says is in the resolution, and what appears to me from reading it is in the resolution, appear to be three different things, and that is all the more reason, I believe, why it seems to be important at this time to lay this resolution on the table.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, if the motion should be carried to lay the resolution on the table, would the resolution be printed for the use of the Members tomorrow?

The SPEAKER. If the resolution is laid on the table it would not have been referred to a committee under the rules and it could be printed by the direction of the House only.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me by all means the resolution should be printed, and if my motion to lay it on the table prevails, I certainly will follow it up with a motion to have the resolution printed, because I do not think it would be of much advantage to lay it on the table if the resolution were not printed.

I shall not attempt to repeat what the gentleman from Monroe said, but I think if you would put side by side what actually is in the resolution and his explanation of what the resolution contains, you will find they are not exactly in accord. I do not mean he is attempting to misrepresent the intent of the resolution, but his understanding of what is in it and what appears to me to be in it are entirely two different things. I do not think any of us can have an exact knowledge of what is in the resolution unless we have an opportunity to take it, read it and study it. For that reason I think this resolution ought to be laid on the table, and a motion ought to be made and carried by this House to have it printed so that in the morning all the Members of this House may have the printed resolution before them to pass upon it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SHAW asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the chairman of a committee has certain very definite duties, among them being the duty of presenting to his committee the bills which are in his opinion the best which have been submitted. From the beginning of this session there have been introduced in this House and referred to the Committee on Welfare a number of bills covering the question of the bond that has been required to be signed by all of those needing assistance.

On February third there was introduced in this House, House Bill 174, sponsored by Messrs. Schwab and Malloy. On May first the Welfare Committee reported that bill out as committed. The bill was passed finally and sent to the Senate on the twelfth of May. I am now informed in a daily paper published in Scranton, Pennsylvania that the gentleman from Scranton, Mr. Regan, made rather serious accusations against the Chairman of the Welfare Committee, among them being the statement that the chairman of the Welfare Committee was keeping in that Committee bills which referred to the bond matter and was refusing to allow those bills to come out and, therefore was no friend of the poor.

May I call the attention of the Members of the House to the fact that House Bill 174, dealing with the bond matter, was passed on the twelfth of May and that on page 2132 of the Legislative Journal it is recorded that this bill passed finally by a vote of 193 to nothing, and that the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Regan, who made the statement to the newspaper, is not recorded as voting. I thank you.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REGAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REGAN. Mr. Speaker, the chairman of the Welfare Committee has stated the duties of the Welfare Committee or any other committee that he may be chairman of, but he did not say that the members of the committee may have some rights too. He did not tell you that one member of the committee had many conferences with that same gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Shaw, relative to such legislation. He did not dare reveal anything like that and I do not take back what I said in the newspaper by any means. There is no need for any resolution to be introduced on investigate what I said. If I am to be brought before the bar of this House to answer any charges that he may hurl relative to those accusations that I supposedly made, then I say, Mr. Speaker, that we both could be brought up there, and if there is any apology needed then I say very frankly as a man that there is only one apology I need to make, and that is being a member of the committee, I have revealed anything that happened in the committee. If I am wrong about that, I am more of a man than he is, and I apologize.

The SPEAKER. Personal reflections are out of order.

Mr. REGAN. That may be true but he won't cast any either, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Regan.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REGAN. Mr. Speaker, I certainly will not.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna refuses to be interrogated.

Mr. SHAW. Well, Mr. Speaker, may I call your attention to the fact that all of the bills dealing with the bond matter that have been referred to the Welfare Committee, the gentleman from Lackawanna has not sponsored one of them. When I spoke with him today on the floor of the House with respect to the article appearing in his home town newspaper, he said that he didn't know that the bill had passed. The bill was passed on the twelfth day of May, as I stated, and the article or the information was given to his home paper presumably around the fourth or fifth of June. So I would suggest to the gentleman that possibly he might read the legislative history and be a trifle more conversant with the history of the bills before he makes wild accusations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

In four General Sessions and one Special Session of the Legislature I have introduced bills to correct an evil existing in local taxation of real estate—the exemption of Utility properties from real estate taxes. And, for the benefit of the new members who may not know the story behind this exemption, I want to cover briefly why this privilege is enjoyed by the Utilities of Pennsylvania.

The power to tax is the power of the Legislature. This exemption was not granted to the Utilities by the Legislature—but—it is enjoyed due to a decision made by the Supreme Court away back in 1825 when public utilities were individually owned and were not merely a "link" in the great holding chains of utilities that exist today. The Supreme Court stated:

"The power to tax includes the power to sell for non-payment of taxes and thus the property of a public corporation, without which it could not perform its duty to the public, could be sold piecemeal and the corporate purpose be defeated by divesting the title to certain portions of the real estate against which tax liens were filed."

Therefore, to offset this ruling of the Supreme Court it will be necessary for the State Legislature to pass a specific Act to tax the real estate of the Utilities.

This decision of the Supreme Court contradicts another decision made by the same Court in relation to tax exempt properties. The Court's remarks in this case are as follows:

"Taxes are not penalties, but are contributions which all inhabitants are expected to make and may be compelled to make for the support of the manifold activities of governmental protection. Such protection costs money. When any inhabitant fails to contribute his share of the costs of this protection some other inhabitant must contribute more than his fair share of that cost."

Now, before proceeding any farther, I want to impress upon the minds of the Members of this House that the State of Pennsylvania is the only State of the entire forty-eight which does not tax the real estate of the Utilities the same as all other real estate is taxed. House Bill No. 67, introduced by me the first day of this Session, merely puts Pennsylvania in step with all of her sister States.

According to a report made by the Secretary of Internal Affairs for the year 1937, $230,641,066.00's worth of real estate owned by Public Utilities is exempt from paying their just share of real estate taxes. Now, in arguing why these properties should be taxed I am not going to use any of my own arguments, but am going to quote the words of men whose decisions are taken as authoritative.

I will start at home and will quote from the now present Budget Controller Dr. Logan—whose words of wisdom on taxation are accepted by the Republican members of this House. On page 16, of Dr. Logan's book on "Taxation of Real Property in Pennsylvania," he states:

"Utilities receive the same police, fire, sewage, highway, sanitary and other protection and services as other real estate in the same community. These local districts which render greater service to the Utilities than the State receive no contribution toward the maintenance of these services."

On page 17, Dr. Logan is very definite in pointing out that Pennsylvania is the only State where the Utilities do not share their burden of local taxation and he can be quoted as follows:

"The States included in the study have taken steps to reduce the burden of exemption. All these States tax the real property of Public Utilities for the defraying of local governmental expense. Such actual practice on the part of other states refutes the ruling of the Courts of Pennsylvania and the contention of the Utilities that to allow such properties to be assessed and taxed for local benefit would be opening the door to destruction of public service through tax sales by local governments for unpaid Utility taxes."

Again on page 16, of this same book, Dr. Logan states very emphatically his stand on this matter when he says:

"The exemption of the real estate of Public Utilities from local taxation shifts a heavy burden of taxation to other taxpayers."

Now, let us go to the arguments used by the Utilities themselves in the Public Hearings in Washington against the T.V.A. In reporting these Hearings, B. C. Forbes—the financial writer who owns and edits the "Forbes" magazine—states:

"One upshot apparently was unforeseen and ignored. Investor owned utilities pay local taxes today—while the government exempts its own projects from taxation."

Another statement of Mr. Forbes' is as follows:

"Deprived of tax receipts formerly paid by private utilities, many counties near the center of TVA operations are faced with outright fiscal disaster and even with the forced closing of schools in some areas."

The above statement can be used very nicely in Pennsylvania because if ever the same condition existed regarding our schools as described by Mr. Forbes, it exists right here. Our Elementary School teachers in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, we admit, are underpaid and from all the tears shed in this House in the four Sessions I have been here for the plight of the 4th Class School Districts, I have yet to find the sympathy turned into dollars and cents for the teachers. I might add, that in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh this Bill would add a half a million dollars to the Boards' incomes.

Mr. Forbes further states:

"The State Government can take care of its needs for additional or replacement revenues through its power to tax, but County, School Districts, and municipal governments should not be left to shift for themselves. Their only recourse to meet the threatened loss of revenues would be further increases in the already excessive property tax. Taking taxes off electric utilities and placing added tax burdens on homes, farms, and all other property would be inequitable and wholly unjustified."

I do not know how I could improve upon the words of this tax expert, Mr. Forbes, when he states:

"Taking taxes off electric utilities and placing added tax burdens on homes, farms and all other property would be inequitable and wholly unjustified."

Now, to avoid the old hackneyed Utility argument that some communities have utility properties and others do not, let me tell you also that some communities have large department stores and others do not—some have large mills and others do not—some have coal mines and others do not but, to those who will put forth these arguments, let me ask you whether or not the exclusive neighborhoods of Philadelphia, the Sewickley Heights of Allegheny County, the Bonus Hills of Bethlehem, would permit a generating plant or a sub-station to be built in the midst of their community? I know a number of Members of this House are waiting to tell me about Springdale Borough. There the home owner pays the highest tax rates than in any other municipality in Allegheny County because they must furnish police and fire protection, pay the cost of maintaining their streets as well as maintaining an adequate sewage system—but the Utility uses these in Springdale but shifts their share of the costs to the shoulders of every other real estate owner in Springdale. The salable value of homes in Springdale has depreciated due to the large Utility Station there and I might add radios in Springdale cannot be enjoyed.

In the beginning of this speech I quoted to you figures of over $230,000,000.00's worth of real estate owned by Public Utilities. These figures were furnished by local Assessment Boards. However, for your information, the Utilities carry about three times this amount or $654,300,000.00's worth—outside of railroad holdings or three times the Assessors' figures—on their books for "rate making" purposes, which looks like there's something wrong in Denmark.

I would like to make one more comparison for you. At a conference of the Public Service Companies of New Jersey, their tax expert protesting of the excessive taxes in New Jersey, stated:

"the State of New Jersey holdings in Public Utilities is 1/5th of the Utilities' holdings in Pennsylvania, but the Utilities in New Jersey pay twelve times as much in taxes in the State of New Jersey as they do in Pennsylvania."

And, the strange part of all is that the rates in New Jersey are lower than in Pennsylvania. I also want to point out to you that in the States where Gross Receipt taxes are paid to the States where the Utilities pay a real estate tax and where the Utilities pay a special Franchise Tax for the use of the streets—the rates are lower than in the State of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia stands 50th in Utility Rates and Pittsburgh 46th. This, I believe, refutes any argument that can be put forth by any Utility Lobbyist or anyone representing the Utilities and opposing the taxing of the real estate of the Public Utilities in Pennsylvania.

HOUSE MESSAGE

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO PROVIDE FEDERAL FUNDS TO STATE PROVIDING ASSISTANCE TO BLIND PERSONS

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, April 14, 1941.

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recognizing the duty of the Commonwealth to provide for its unfortunate blind citizens has provided for the payment to them of a pension; and

Whereas, The Federal Government contributes toward the care of blind persons but insists that moneys apportioned to any state for such purpose must and can only be contributed on a basis of the actual need of the blind; and

Whereas, This Commonwealth receives no part of Federal funds apportioned for blind persons because its system of assistance for the blind is on a liberal pension basis instead of the basis of actual need as required by the Federal Social Security Act; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House concur) That the Congress of the United States is hereby memorialized to amend the Social Security Law of the Federal Government by providing for the contribution of Federal funds for assistance to blind persons to states which provide for such assistance either on a basis of actual need or on a pension basis; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy hereof be transmitted to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States and

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section four hundred fifteen of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 415 Overseers of Election On the petition of five or more duly registered electors of any election district setting forth that the appointment of overseers is a reasonable precaution to secure the purity and fairness of any primary or election in said district it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of the proper county if it shall be of the opinion that such action is necessary or advisable all the law judges of the said court able to act at the time concurring to appoint two judicious sober and intelligent electors of the said district belonging to different political parties overseers of election to supervise the proceedings of election officers thereof and to make report of the same as they may be required by Overseers shall sign returns of elections as hereinafter required. Whenever the members of an election board shall differ in opinion the overseers if they shall be agreed thereon shall decide the question of difference.

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to make a few remarks concerning this bill. At present the overseer's act is a compulsory act which has worked satisfactorily for years. This bill, as it is drawn now, makes the appointment of overseers optional with the courts.

Mr. President, I am one person not convinced that judges are not sometimes political, particularly at election times, when they are more liable to be politically minded. This act has worked satisfactorily as a compulsory act and I do not see why we should change it; if we pass this bill, would make it an optional act.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I can not agree with my good friend from Allegheny. The previous bill was drafted in 1874 and in those days there were no watchers. Today we have watchers and it makes it mandatory upon the court to appoint overseers. In a city like Philadelphia you can go in to court two days before election and ask the court to appoint over thirteen hundred overseers and they must do it. This simply makes it optional with the court; they can appoint them or not. A great many county leaders, both Republican and Democratic, have asked me to present this bill. After a careful study I am convinced it is a good bill.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as I understand the bill it is not restricted to Philadelphia County.

Mr. FARRELL. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Many times, Mr. President, a condition arises where overseers are requested, and if we give the court the right to reject a request, I am not one who yet believes the courts are divorced from politics. Out where I come from they still have Democratic and Republican judges, and I would hate to see them turn down a request for overseers at some election because the Republicans requested them, because out where I come from we have Democratic judges. The condition might be reversed, where we would have Republican judges, and I do not think it is wise to give them discretionary power. I think up to date the mandatory power has been working well and when overseers are requested, by law they have to give them to us, and I think in order to keep elections straight and clean, we should get overseers when we think we need them.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, speaking very practically, in Philadelphia County we have a super-abundance of watchers and since this bill is in the interest of economy certainly the court does not have to appoint overseers. Personally, I do think duly qualified officers of election ought to be sufficiently honest to count the votes and behave themselves. We now have watchers to watch those gentlemen, and we have overseers, and I had a bill calling for the appointment of several examiners, which I fortunately lost, perhaps, so that we are well supplied with detectives, and therefore in the interest of economy I think we should support this bill.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have no objection, if Philadelphia feels they can get along without overseers, I will vote for a bill to restrict this procedure to the County of Philadelphia and I will be glad to do so, but out where I come from we do not have sufficient funds with which to hire watchers in every district. We just do it at times; we do not man the polls like you do in Philadelphia, where I understand, you have one or two watchers for every one or two voters; we do not work it that way. If you want a bill for Philadelphia, I will go along with that, but I do not think you should make us take it if we do not want it.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, the law was previously if five or more duly registered electors of any election district ask for overseers the Common Pleas Court shall appoint them, if all the judges concur.

Now, Mr. President, if the Common Pleas Court and all the judges must concur as to appointing these overseers, I do not see any reason for having the Court there at all. Why not just eliminate the Court? But, Mr. President, if we are going to have the Court there with whom you can file a petition, certainly you should give it discretion as to whether or not those overseers are necessary or advisable, so that they can turn the petition down if they do not think they are necessary and thus save the county that much money.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not think that judges have the knowledge of whether an overseer is needed in some districts and that is my reason for objecting to the bill. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, spoke about watchers. A watcher is far different from an overseer. An overseer is allowed behind the rail where he can see if there is anything wrong and a watcher is out in front and I do not think he can tell very much.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Is there objection?

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1052,
(HOUSE BILL NO. 849)

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1052, (House Bill No. 849), passed second reading be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. JASPAN. Roll call, Mr. President.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman from Luzerne will state his point of information.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, Are we about now to vote on the amendments or on the bill?

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The question before the Senate is will the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1052, (House Bill No. 849), passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, will the Chair suspend the calling of the roll and permit me to make a brief statement.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Is there objection? The Chair hears none. The Senator from Lackawanna will proceed.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I would like to suggest that the motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed second reading is in effect prejudging the amendments the gentleman from Northumberland proposes to offer. I think he is entitled to have the amendments submitted; certainly he is entitled to be given the courtesy of an opportunity to submit the amendments. If after listening to the reading of the amendments any Senator desires to vote against the amendments he certainly has that privilege, but I must certainly think that it is a trifle discourteous, to say the least, to refuse the gentleman from Northumberland permission to offer amendments which might have the effect of permitting some of us who would like to vote for the bill, if it had a qualifying amendment, to vote for it. In its present form of course, I shall have to vote against it.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I would not construe this vote "no" as a discourtesy to the gentleman from Northumberland. This bill has been constantly amended, and in view of the fact that the session is about to end—I am optimistic, of course—further amendments may amount to a kiss of death. If we keep on amending this bill it will be tantamount to killing the bill and for that reason I will be constrained to vote "no" because in my opinion it would not be acted on for a long time.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I am not familiar at all with the amendments as proposed by my friend from Northumberland, Dr. Deitrick. However, I do feel that in the city of Philadelphia there is a need for stringent regulation for an increase in the penalty, so as to prevent a further repetition of violation of the law, in so far as the consumer is concerned, because again and again he has been "gypped" by these companies selling coal, these independent operators selling from house to house, and the penalties were very slight. However, Mr. President, under this bill the penalties have been increased considerably and certainly will act more or less as a check to protect the poor consumer of coal.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The Chair reminds the Senators the only question before the Senate is reconsideration of the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1052 passed second reading.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JASPAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—31

Barr,	Deitrick,	Mallery,	Tyler,
Becker,	Dent,	McQuiddy,	Wade,
Carr,	Frey,	Mundy,	Watkins,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Ruth,	Wilson, H. I.,
Coleman,	Hajuska,	Snowden,	Wilson, T. B.,
Cox,	Homsher,	Stevenson,	Woodward,
Crider,	James,	Taylor,	Ziesenheim,
Crowe,	Lanius,	Thomas,

NAYS—10

Bartlett,	Heyburn,	Scarlett,	Tallman,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Stiefel,	Ealy,
Farrell,	Kephart,		Pres. Pro. Tem.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Sections one to ten inclusive of the bill were severally reconsidered.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, I desire to offer amendments.

striking out the word "and" and inserting in lieu thereof: "or."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

MOTION TO LAY AMENDMENTS ON THE TABLE

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I move that the amendments be laid on the table so as to give the Senators an opportunity to study these amendments.

Mr. STIEFEL. I second the motion, Mr. President.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

Mr. STIEFEL. I withdraw my seconding of the motion, Mr. President.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I have listened to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Jaspan, with regard to the consumers in his area having been "gypped" at various times by coal haulers, and that the purpose of this bill was to put teeth in the law with regard to gypping. I am heartily in favor of any law that does that, but unfortunately this bill does more than that. This bill goes to the point of putting out of business any independent coal trucker, and I mean by that honest legitimate coal haulers, the small hauler who makes a business of selling coal by peddling from door to door with a truck of either one ton, two ton or five ton capacity, sometimes with a full load and sometimes in compartments with a ton to a compartment.

The red tape and governmental regulations contained in this bill puts that kind of man out of business. Mr. President, I am personally opposed to the principle of government interfering with any private enterprise and I am against this bill for that reason. I am further against this bill because I believe the bill is indirectly trying to attack the bootleg business in the hard coal counties.

Now, Mr. President, if that is the purpose, then the honest way to do that is to attack it by a bill directly doing that thing, instead of indirectly doing it as this bill does because in attacking, as this bill does, the bootlegger, it also destroys the legitimate small coal dealer, and it is on his behalf I am now appealing to the members of this Senate to give consideration to the amendments presented by my colleague from Northumberland, Senator Deitrick.

I want to say, Mr. President, this is the first time since I became a member of this Senate that I have taken the floor of the Senate in behalf of any bill. I made a resolution at the beginning of the session I was going to keep quiet and listen to the older and more seasoned members of this Senate, but on behalf of this bill I find I must ask the members of the Senate to give consideration to these amendments, which we feel will not take the teeth out of the bill, which means the penalties that are applied to the man who tries to gyp a customer, but takes out some of the red tape and some of the governmental regulations that puts out of business the trucker.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, the other day a delegation came to me and said about a certain bill "this is a witch hunt," and my answer to them was "if there are witches they ought to be hunted."

If people come to Philadelphia and sell coal according to honest weight they have nothing to fear. Apparently the teeth in the previous bills were false and now we want a bill with real teeth, and I do not see why people who are doing legitimate business should fear this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this burning issue has been side-stepped or soft-pedaled by Governor Pinchot, and Governor Earle, and when Governor James came in he gave us a luncheon party and tried to get twenty-six votes for a bill which would insist upon the licensing of those anthracite bootleggers.

The Senator from Schuylkill is probably rubbing the wrong way by asking that this bill pertaining to anthracite bootleggers—oh, I will not mention names, but perhaps the Senator knows what he is talking about—about ninety per cent of the people affected by this bill being anthracite bootleggers.

Mr. President, you may remember when the gallery upstairs was filled with anthracite bootleggers—by the way I think they were better than the school teachers as a lobby—and when the bill came up for final passage the vote in the Senate was 24—24, a very dramatic moment, the bill fell and the gallery cheered.

I have in my hand here a report of a coal company in Shamokin. The title is "Data on Stolen Coal by Stevens Coal Company."

Mr. President, I do not propose to read the entire book to you but this statement says there are about thirteen thousand men—I am reading this because there is an emotional appeal made to us that we are interfering with poor people who pick up a few lumps of coal here and there to keep themselves warm, but that is not the case—there are about thirteen thousand men actually engaged in the mining or digging of this coal; four thousand trucking, two thousand engaged in breakers or cleaning plants, producing in 1935 an estimated tonnage of 4,800,000 tons. A recent check of the past year 1939 shows approximately six million tons.

That is all done in the open, no concealment whatever, nor any hiding when the policemen come. The report goes on to say:

"The local authorities, as well as the state authorities, have taken the attitude to let these men continue; as a matter of fact, they help them. Policemen pay no attention whatsoever and 72 per cent of the business men on actual check are buying stolen coal, 60 per cent of the churches are using it; even the preachers who preach strongly 'thou shalt not steal' do not consider this as stealing." The report mentions a personal experience which I think you will find interesting:

"Might here mention the fact that our own actual experience in this respect was that we had made numerous arrests on our property but could not get any conviction locally in our town of Shamokin. Upon meeting one of my old friends, Mr. Edwards, who is alderman at Sunbury, told me if we would bring down the bootleggers he would see that they would get a jail sentence.

"It was easy for us to go out next morning and pick up three of these thieves. We took them to Sunbury, which is the county seat of this County, a distance of twenty miles, and had a hearing before the alderman and he sentenced them to thirty days in jail. We felt quite elated over this as we thought we finally found somebody who would give us some justice.

"We had about half hour's business at the Court House before returning to Shamokin. After completion of this business we were on our way to Shamokin when we noticed three men standing on a curve thumbing their way. These men looked familiar and we found they were the same men we brought down. They left them go immediately after we left and we brought them home in our car and bought them a drink."

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Northumberland.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Will the gentleman from Northumberland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DEITRICK. Gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I should like to know whether, if these amendments are adopted, the bill will be in such form the gentleman from Northumberland can give it his vote?

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, if these amendments are accepted I will vote for the bill.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Watkins.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATKINS. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, would the gentleman from Schuylkill answer the same as did the gentleman from Northumberland to the question I asked the gentleman from Northumberland.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I will vote for the bill if the amendments are adopted.

Mr. President, I would like to say one thing further in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward. There is nothing in this bill that will allow the arrest of any bootleggers in Schuylkill or Northumberland Counties and the remarks of the Stevens Coal Company, now defunct, have nothing to do with the present bill. My objection to this bill is because its present regulations affects the small legitimate trucker and puts him out of business.

Mr. DEITRICK. Mr. President, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Stiefel, made an assertion that what was wanted was honest weight. As far as the representative coal miner is concerned he is just as desirous of having honest weight as are the people in Philadelphia. We are not after anything excepting what is right but we do say that this law is iniquitous as far as the penalty is concerned on the miner who is trying to do right and trying to make a livelihood in our region, whether it be legitimate or whether it be illegitimate, and we feel the truckers would be imposed on. If it would be necessary I would be glad to go into details as far as the amendments are concerned, but I think, perhaps, when the bill is on third reading, if the amendments are not acceptable I can then explain them a little more thoroughly.

However, I believe, Mr. President, the amendments being offered will take care of the objections we feel handicap us in our region. I was amused at the address of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Woodward, for whom I have the greatest respect, but for his information the men he spoke about I do know, I do know the Stevens Coal Company and I do know they are out of business. I do know as far as the bootlegging business is concerned, two years ago in this Senate the Stevens Coal Company was only half heartily against it.

Also, Mr. President, for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Woodward, the squire who tried those three men is a personal friend of mine. He went after the boys so that he could increase his salary, that is all. These boys being down in Columbia County, Bloomsburg, the squire at Bloomsburg turned it down and the squire in Sunbury took the job and went looking for it. If you want that kind of squires, all right. The fellow no longer is a squire; he got a trimming when he came up for reelection. For the further information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, that gentleman at present is a law enforcing officer in the liquor violation board and if you want that kind of a man enforcing your laws, liquor or any other line you may have it.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, for whatever political effect it may have in support of these amendments, I would like to advise the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart, in the event these amendments are inserted in the bill, there are four or five of us on this side of the House who will support the bill who otherwise will have to vote against it.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, so far as the economic situation is concerned down in Schuylkill and Northumberland counties, I think everybody assiduously avoids that, because as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, has already here said, several Governors have passed it up and we from the northern coal fields want to take issue on this point.

I would be inclined to say that we have very little bootleg mining in the northern fields because of the fact that operators up there have taken pretty good care to assure that economic conditions are improved, but a different situation exists down in Northumberland and Schuylkill counties, with which I think I am fairly well informed, but the gist of the situation is, Mr. President, we are placed in a ridiculous position. Some of the Senators get on the floor here and they deride the so called independent operator, the bootlegger, if you please, and say that he is dishonest in his weight and that he steals coal and then sells coal at a lower rate than we could afford to mine it or produce it in regular mining operation but he has a very good reason, he has no equity in the land, he has no taxes to pay, and he has very little overhead, and therefore can afford to send the coal to market at a much cheaper rate, but the Philadelphia contingent complain very bitterly about the fact that they are shortweighted. I just want to call to the Senate's attention the fact that Philadelphia and Philadelphia's citizens are in full possession of the fact as to with whom they are doing business and that if they get a little short weight in seeking a cheap price and a cheaper coal then they should not come to the Senate of Pennsylvania and complain of the fact that they were being gypped in a "gyp" deal which they originated themselves.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JASPAN and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. MALLERY. In today's mail, Mr. President, I received a petition from a number of retired men from Blair County, which is very brief, and I would request the Clerk to read it.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. If there is no objection the Clerk will read the communication, which will be spread on the Journal.

The petition was read as follows:

"We, the undersigned members of Altoona Unit No. 6, National Association of Railroad Employes hereby go on record, favoring and urging the passage of your proposed bill giving all men having attained the age of 65 years or more free hunting and fishing license residing in Pennsylvania. Most of us men have been paying for our hunting and fishing privileges ever since the law was enacted many years ago. We therefore believe that since the State allows all individuals 16 years of age and under free hunting and fishing license, we believe we retired men whose income has been cut to about one third of our former earnings, which in most cases forbids the expenditure of money for license that would allow us to indulge in a sport that will help us to wile away the long hours of our enforced idleness, we your Blair County constituents respectfully urge you to do all in your power to have the bill enacted into a law."

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, this petition is signed by numerous individuals from my district.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I am wondering what effect the passage of these two bills will have on the game and fish fund and I would also like to ask my colleague from Blair County whether or not Pierre S. DuPont, who is one of my neighbors, would be asked to buy a fishing license.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, in answer to the query of my friend from Delaware, I do not think the privilege that will be extended by the passage of these two bills will seriously impair the game fund, because, as was stated in the petition which was just read, these men are not now able to obtain fishing and hunting licenses and furthermore I doubt whether many of them will seriously deplete the streams of fish or forests of game.

By this bill we are doing something possible which, it seems to me, we can add a little bit of pleasure to the lives of our good citizens who have reached the age of sixty-five years or over, it is something we may well do.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I intend to vote for this bill and I only regret my colleague from Blair did not make the age sixty. I have always maintained a man at the age of sixty who is too old to obtain employment, should have free licenses and I am suggesting this to the gentleman from Blair for what it is worth, that he might reconsider his bill and amend it to grant free licenses to all men who have reached the age of sixty.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Blair.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as I understand, this bill grants free fishing and hunting licenses.

Mr. MALLERY. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. To persons over sixty-five years of age.

Mr. MALLERY. That is correct, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PRESENT—1

Taylor,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I now want to thank my colleagues, and especially my Democratic colleagues, for voting "aye" on this bill. We hear so much in the Senate here about doing something for industry and for those that have, and I just wonder when, really, my Republican colleagues are going to wake up and really be concerned about the welfare of all the people of the state, especially of those who have none or have very little.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I voted "no" on this last bill and I expect to vote "no" on the next bill and I am doing so on the basis of a fine old democratic sentiment. It was Thomas Jefferson who said "equal rights for all, special privileges for none."

That seems to me to be a good doctrine, particularly with reference to what government does for its people.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I want to supplement what the gentleman from Blair has said. I think people should pay some attention to the aged of our Commonwealth. However, I noticed the vote taken on that bill was very peculiar.

The older men in the Senate voted "no" and the youthful members voted "aye." That just goes to prove once again, Mr. President, that old men have young ideas.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1104, as follows:

An Act to amend section three hundred two of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1125) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by providing for the issuing of free hunters' licenses to persons over sixty-five years of age

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section three hundred two of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1125) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 302 Resident License Fee Each such resident as provided in the preceding section upon application made in writing to any agent authorized to issue such licenses within the Commonwealth the presentation of proof that he is a citizen of the United States and a bona fide resident of this Commonwealth under the requirements of this article and the establishment of his identity to the satisfaction of the authority issuing the license or to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace magistrate or notary public or any agent designated to receive applications for licenses when taking such applications as hereinafter authorized by producing a bank book letters lodge cards police cards a motor vehicle driver's license or some other positive means of identification and in the case of naturalized foreign-born applicants the production of such applicant's naturalization papers unless any such person has been disqualified for a license in the manner hereinafter specified and the payment to said agent or the Department of Revenue of two dollars ($2.00) shall be entitled to a resident hunter's license and a tag with the number of the license thereon which shall entitle the holder to hunt or trap for all wild birds and wild animals which may legally be hunted or trapped in this Commonwealth except as otherwise provided Whenever any such resident is over the age of sixty-five years he shall be entitled to receive such resident hunter's license and tag from said agent or from the Department of Revenue without the payment of any fee upon the presentation of such proof of age as may be required by said department

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Barr,	Dent,	Mallery,	Tyler,
Becker,	DiSilvestro,	McQuiddy,	Wade,

PRESENT—1

Taylor,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to explain my vote on this bill.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I voted in the affirmative on Senate Bill No. 1103, but I voted in the negative on Senate Bill No. 1104 because I believe that a person who is above sixty-five years of age should not expose himself to the rigors of hunting, and I believe it would be against public policy to have people above sixty-five years of age roaming the woods with pistols.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I think I should explain my vote "present." Last week my good colleagues on the left side of the Senate told everybody in Pennsylvania I was sixty-five years old and I do not want the opinion to get abroad I had influence upon the gentleman from Blair in having these bills presented that is why I voted "present."

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS NON- CONCURRED IN BY THE HOUSE TO HOUSE BILL No. 811.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the House to House Bill No. 811.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I ask that the roll be called on the motion to recommit this bill.

(The following occurred during the calling of the roll:)

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I ask that the roll be verified.

The PRESIDENT. The roll will be so verified.

The Clerk will call the names of those voting in the affirmative.

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Miller,	Wade,
Becker,	Geltz,	Scarlett,	Watkins,
Carr,	Heyburn,	Snowden,	Wilson, H. I.,
Chapman,	Homsher,	Stevenson,	Woodward,
Crider,	James,	Tallman,	Ziesenheim,
Crowe,	Kephart,	Thomas,	Ealy,
Edmonds,	Mallery,		Pres. Pro. Tem.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Are there any corrections?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to inquire how the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn is recorded as voting? I did not hear him vote.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. There was no answer when the name of the gentleman from Delaware was called.

Mr. COLEMAN. That is correct, Mr. President. I suggest that the name of the gentleman from Delaware be stricken from the affirmative roll.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. It is so ordered. Are there any other corrections in the affirmative vote? The Chair hears none.

The affirmative roll will stand as verified.

The Clerk will call the names of those voting in the negative.

Barr,	DiSilvestro,	Lanlus,	Shapiro,
Coleman,	Haluska,	Mundy,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Ruth,	Taylor,

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. Are there any corrections in the negative vote. The Chair hears none. The negative vote will stand as verified.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye".

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I dislike intensely getting highly technical in the matter of recording votes, but my good friend from Monroe, Senator Crowe, was not in the room when the affirmative roll was verified and accordingly he has no right to be recorded on the affirmative roll.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, the final vote was not announced and the gentleman from Monroe has the privilege of being recorded up until that time.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The Chair must rule the vote of the Senator should be recorded. However, an inspection of the roll would seem to indicate it would not make much difference. The vote on the motion to recommit is 26-12. The motion accordingly prevails.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. KEPHART and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Scarlett,	Watkins,
Becker,	Geltz,	Snowden,	Wilson, H. I.,
Carr,	Homsher,	Stevenson,	Woodward,
Chapman,	James,	Tallman,	Ziesenheim,
Crider,	Kephart,	Thomas,	Ealy,
Crowe,	Mallery,	Tyler,	Pres. Pro. Tem.
Edmonds,	Miller,	Wade,

NAYS—12

Barr,	DiSilvestro,	Lanus,	Shapiro,
Coleman,	Haluska,	Mundy,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Ruth,	Taylor,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, for the information of the gentleman from Lackawanna, I voted before I left the Senate Chamber and when I returned I thought it was another bill and wanted to be recorded as voting "aye", thinking it was another bill.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS THE SENATE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask permission to address the Senate.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Yesterday, Mr. President, on the third reading calendar Senate Bill No. 680 appeared, and after discussion with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, to whom I had suggested some objections to this bill, he told me the bill had been placed on the postponed calendar.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. To which bill does the gentleman from Philadelphia refer?

Mr. SHAPIRO. To Senate Bill No. 680, on page 5 of today's Calendar. The bill was to go over in its order and I assumed the bill would remain in that condition, because I had discussed this bill with some of the sponsors, particularly the banking interests, and had pointed out some defects in the bill and they had agreed yesterday to prepare some amendments. I had expected to offer those amendments late today or tomorrow when I came here. I reminded myself of the bill today and sent a telegram to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, which I understand he got perhaps twenty minutes after the bill had been passed. I sent the telegram around four o'clock I think.

Now, Mr. President, this is one bill which I think would change a fixed custom of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. For years this is one of the few states that has refused to go along with chattel mortgages, and according to this bill every piece of furniture in a household can now be placed in a warehouse to satisfy a chattel mortgage.

The objections to this bill which I suggested and discussed with the bankers seem by them to be valid. The banking interests want this bill because the Federal Government is willing to make loans to industry, but they can not get any security for them and were willing to take machinery and plant equipment where a mortgage does not cover it.

Mr. President, it seems to me in view of those circumstances, I am not out of order in suggesting now, and I hope my colleagues will agree, that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The Chair is informed by the Librarian the bill has passed out of the possession of the Senate and therefore must first be recalled before such action could be taken.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in that event there is nothing to be done about it except I shall prepare a motion recalling the bill from the Governor and I hope my colleagues will join with me in voting for the recall resolution.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman from Luzerne will proceed.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, today the members of the General Assembly heard and saw a demonstration in person and heard a glorious glorification of Washington Irving and his Rip Van Winkle. There has been a sequel written in the House which should be called "The Awakening of Rip Van Winkle."

For months, Mr. President, on several occasions, I have stood on this floor and asked if it were not possible that a committee from both sides of the Assembly meet to discuss legislation which had an even chance of passing, and that we should decide then and there where we were going and what we were going to do and the method of doing it. I was met often and frequently by the statements of members on the other side that they would like to have the opinion of the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, but were unable to obtain it, and I know personally that many members on the Republican side, including its leadership, have gone to the Governor of Pennsylvania seeking his advice, only to be refused, and I have read in the papers time and time again that the Governor of Pennsylvania intended to stay aloof and permit the Legislature to conduct its own business along its own line of thought.

So, this gentleman who took unto himself all the appearance of a gentle little dove sitting over in the Executive Mansion did not fool me a bit, because I know him well enough to know that he has always had all the instincts of a homing pigeon. Today, gentlemen, whether you like it or not, he got himself into the class of the bird they call the "cuckoo." The cuckoo is a bird that lays its eggs in another bird's nest and expects that bird to hatch them out.

He vigorously and viciously assaulted this Legislature for not having fulfilled the promises that he so freely and glibly made during the campaign. He neglected to say, when his expression was so tense and he enunciated so readily with that vigorous nasal accent, he forgot to say what he had done with the promises he made from all the street corners and the public meeting places, to labor; he assiduously avoided any reference to what he was going to do for the poor downtrodden men who labor in and about the mines—you will remember from which he said he originated—and with the same flow of publicity that overnight created a good surveyor into a breaker boy, he now comes before us and cries that the Legislature and the leadership of the Democratic party have prohibited him from fulfilling his promises to the people of Pennsylvania.

I heard him on the square in Bloomsburg one night, in the same dramatic appeal he has made to you gentlemen today, saying "I shall give to every man and woman in Pennsylvania that needs a job, a job," and now today he tells you over there that the Democratic members of the Senate and of the House, were dead-head riders on the Roosevelt express. Well, I want to tell you, gentlemen, that if there was ever a dead head rider on the Roosevelt express, you have got it over in the Executive Office, because if Mr. Roosevelt's express had not come along, he would have been in a sad predicament trying to fix his budget today, and I want to tell you this because I think, like Rip Van Winkle, the Governor of Pennsylvania was really a casualty when the Willkie express passed by.

Now, Mr. President, he says he blames the Democratic leadership in the House, and the Democratic small minority in the Senate, for obstructing his program, and he says he is not able to pay the institutions the money that is due them. Well, I know the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro, and many of us, got up on the floor when he was borrowing money and asked him and asked you people over here to pay that money back to the funds in the biennium during which you borrowed it and you refused to do it. What did you do? You put it over in this biennium, and if there is any embarrassment to the Governor of Pennsylvania in fixing his budget, you, his Republican majority, which he should have advised and did not advise, because you could not contact him, have furnished him the embarrassment and certainly not this side of the Senate, and when a man gives long distance checks or when he signs notes, he should not be so careless as the Chief Executive, because he should realize there is a due date on them, sometimes they are coming due, and he should prepare to meet them and not put the responsibility on someone who is not a signator to the document.

Now, if you were fooled by his eloquence, or fooled by his oratory, you certainly have been fooled, even you of the Republican majority, by his conduct towards you for approximately two years. If there is any man on that side who can rise after I get through and honestly say that the Governor of Pennsylvania gave him any constructive advice on anything that came before the Senate, then I shall apologize to that gentleman, but he has developed a resistance even to you at twenty feet, he gets in his shell and develops that resistance, because he thinks you are going to ask him for something, he thinks probably you are going to ask him for a job. After all, he is the great economist of this age, and he is not going to give any jobs even to deserving Republicans, and he talks about efficiency and restrictions and what he saved on the budget. Why, gentlemen, if he spoke half truthfully to you about his reduction of force around Capitol

Hill—and at the same time reduction of service to the public, don't you forget—why he should not be coming in to us now crying at the last minute for us to rush to his salvation and to agree with him, and I say to you, gentlemen, that it is human nature, that this man should refuse absolutely to come and talk or discuss anything with anybody, that man suddenly ascends the dais, with a club in his hand and says, "I am authority, I, Arthur James, I am Arthur James, Governor of Pennsylvania, I am the constituted authority, and don't you dare disagree with me." If that is not dictatorship, I do not know what kind of a land we are living in or what we are associated with today, because we, who represent the people of Pennsylvania, dare disagree with His Exalted Excellency, the Governor of Pennsylvania, he berates us and calls us names over in the House today. This same shrinking violet suddenly develops into a militant giant, who is going to run roughshod over the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and if that ex-breaker boy from the anthracite wants to stay here all summer, you can convey the message to him I will bring my golf clubs down with me, and I know I will find lots of kindred souls on both sides, and we will stay here until he gets ready to thaw out.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I have listened to the sarcastic and acrimonious remarks of the gentleman from Luzerne, Dr. Mundy, with regard to the Governor of Pennsylvania, for the last time without saying something in reply.

It seems to me in the last week in this Senate and here today we have seen an example of democracy at work at its worst. It seems to me we forget here in the Legislature of Pennsylvania that back home the people are watching what we say and what we do.

Mr. President, I was taught in school that theoretically the best kind of government is an absolute monarchy and that theoretically the worst kind of government is an absolute democracy. I said theoretically because in practice, where human nature enters in, absolutism is the worst form of government. The reason why these theorists tell us an absolute monarchy is the best kind of government is because you can place responsibility on the one man and say to that one man "it is your fault for the policy you adopt, but we give you credit for the benefits that come from your wise program"; and the reason an absolute democracy does not work is because of the red tape, waste, inefficiency and irresponsibility that results from all the people trying directly to govern themselves, which eventually ends in chaos and anarchy. Somewhere between these two we thought we had found an ideal kind of government—representative democracy, wherein the people select their representatives in the legislative, executive and judicial branches of our government, and in doing that we try to say to the people we are going to try to make them responsible, so that graft, so that inefficiency, so that red tape, so that all the arguments that are used by those opponents of democracy, of which we have so many today, point their fingers of scorn at democracy, may be rebutted.

Today, Mr. President, we have only two last bulwarks of democracy, England and the United States of America, and the whole world is on fire and democracy itself lies at stake, and while that is going on, here in Pennsylvania we have the Lower House and the Upper House quarreling about figures, and we are giving an example to the people of the Commonwealth of how democracy does not work and building up arguments for its enemies.

What is an estimate budget but a guess? The Governor of Pennsylvania took his figures from the financial experts of the state government and has said "This is the income of the Commonwealth based on expert opinion." The gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro, and his friends over in the House take another figure. All we are quarreling about is whose guess is right, and no matter whose we take, whether we take the guess of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, or whether we take Governor James' estimate of the budget income as the accurate amount upon which we can estimate, after all, we have to say that responsibility for the guess will rest with the present administration.

Is it not fair to say that the responsibility of the James Administration for the four years of his governorship is that of Governor James and the Republican Party? Therefore, is it not fair for us to say to the members of the House, "You have told the people these figures are not right and you have made an effort to have your figures accepted by the Republican members of the Senate and the Governor of Pennsylvania, but they say they will not accept them." Haven't you then fixed responsibility?

Is it not fair, after you have fixed responsibility for the guess and after the Governor has publicly taken responsibility for the guess, to let the Governor's figures stand and go along with the Senate and Governor, and not ask the Senate and the Governor to go along with the House, which is in effect asking us to say "let the tail wag the dog."

After the figures are accepted; who is going to be blamed if the guess of the Governor is wrong? The Governor of Pennsylvania and the Republican members of the Senate; and if we accept the figures of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro, and they do not prove to be correct, who would be blamed? The Governor of Pennsylvania and the members of the Senate, because any intelligent man would certainly say the House could not put their program through when the Republicans control both the executive branch and the Upper House of the Legislature.

I think it is silly and we are showing a bad example in these days when democracy is on trial. Why can't the Democratic Party say to the people "We have tried to convince the Governor of an error in his computation but because it is his duty as Governor to make the computation and because we could not convince him of his error, we accepted his figures, but the result will be his responsibility and the responsibility of the Republican Party." The people will then decide after they view the results.

Let us not, as we have in the last two weeks, give one exhibition after another of how democracy does not work and give more ammunition to the guns of those people who have been shooting at the inefficiency, the red tape, the lack of responsibility and all the things that they point to as evils in a democracy.

Let us, all of us together, give an example, especially in this day when the whole world is on fire, and the United States of America stands at the crossroads of a history making decision, and Pennsylvania is trying to become the arsenal of America, let us get together and accept the figures the experts give us, pass the approprition bill, and say to the world at large "This is a democracy, whether we have Republicans or Democrats in the Legislature, or as our chief executive, and that democracy can work and democracy does work in Pennsylvania."

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to keep myself calm. I too listened to the speech of the Governor this afternoon, and if any sarcasm has entered into it, remember we were not the ones who made mention of the dead heads who rode the Roosevelt express, but as one dead head who just happened to catch the last caboose, I want to say to all of you that the Roosevelt express had a capable, competent engineer, and a full crew of good workmen, and the James slow freight has neither. -

Mr. President, I want to say to the members of the Senate when the Governor of this state tries to lay the blame upon the Democratic majority of the House who are functioning in their proper sphere in one of the three branches mentioned by our good Senator from Schuylkill, the legislative branch, if you please, it is their responsibility, when bills pass that House with their votes, they are the ones held accountable by the people of Pennsylvania and not the Governor, who as I understand our democracy and our Democratic form of government, belongs to the administrative and executive branch. Why, Mr. President, I can remember, back in 1935, when the Republican Senate went on a sit-down strike and you called it a safety valve. Now, we are humbugs and frauds. It seems to me it all depends on whose ox is being gored and just what you can be called for doing the same thing.

If this Governor would have listened and taken the advice of the Democratic minority in 1939, there would not have been any necessity for a special session, to come back and appropriate more money for exactly the same thing that we said he would have to do.

I remember when we had a special session, the Philadelphia Inquirer every day printed a picture of the number of pair of shoes it would buy for the poor people if we would have gone home, but I never saw that parallel used when James spent more than $300,000 to do exactly what this so-called humbug and fraud minority told him he ought to do in 1939, and that is a matter of record.

I also want to say I think he pulled one of the meanest political tricks in the whole bag of political tricks. He sits over there night and day in a plush lined seat and does not do anything about this dead line that is creeping up on him, until the eleventh hour, and then right at the stroke of midnight, right before Cinderella turns back into the little poor girl that she was, and her coach turns back into a pumpkin, James becomes himself again and the little Cinderella of the Republican party says to us, "you will do what I say, you will pass this budget, you will pass these appropriations, because I refuse to surrender." I want to say to you that I as a Democratic Senator, stand today where I have stood for the last six years, and in the matter of legislation pertaining to the poor underprivileged people, in the matter of legislation pertaining to workmen in this State of Pennsylvania, unemployment compensation, anti-injunction laws and all those laws that belong to labor and their bill of rights, I say to the Governor that he may not surrender but I refuse to retreat. If he wants to stay here all summer, I want to say to him I understand you can keep cool in Harrisburg a darn sight better than you can out in western Pennsylvania where we do not have air conditioning.

Let me say in conclusion I did not want to go into this, but I happened to notice he tries to tell the people that two hundred some hospitals, mind you, he blames the Democrats because those hospitals did not get their checks on time. Why, some of them have not received any checks for over a year, and we have not been in session that long. He tries to blame the Democrats for conditions in the state-aided welfare institutions.

I want to say to the Governor we are working on next year's business, if you please, and if he would get off of that slow freight and get on the caboose with me, riding the Roosevelt express, he would keep up to date, whereas he is now working on last year's business. I could go through this thing and pick out a lot of things, but what is the use.

The one point I want to make clear is this, that the Democratic controlled House is operating in its proper sphere and functioning in a democracy and they did not seize control of the House of Representatives, as he says in his speech; they were elected by the people of this Commonwealth and the control was given to them by the mandate of the majority of the people of this Commonwealth. They did not go in and seize it, but he would endeavor to seize the duties and the jurisdiction that belongs to the House of Representatives and say to them, "this is my budget, this is my figure, you will take my plan or else."

Let me remind you of something, and I am going to call a turn here, just like we called the turn in 1939: I say it would be far better if we accepted the figures which on the basis of increased activities in the State of Pennsylvania, increased activities in national defense, are more apt to be sound than those that are based upon last year's business, if you please. If you do not take the Democratic version of the budget, you are going to have a special session and then when you have a special session, little Cinderella will come up and he will say to the people of Pennsylvania, "by my own economies—(did you notice how many times he said 'I')—by my economies, by my great administration, I have effected tax reductions." We Democrats know there is going to be a tax reduction but it is not because of what he has done, it is because of what Hitler and Mussolini are doing over in Europe.

We are making a lot of guns for the people who are trying to stop him but by making those guns and other war materials we hope not to make ammunition for the 1942 campaign for Governor James.

Mr. President, there will be a special session and he will ask for tax reductions and he will take credit for them. That is why he wants his budget to go in, and not our budget which takes and considers the fact that there are increased incomes to the State of Pennsylvania, and we now make appropriations to spend that money which we know will come in.

I imagine someone else on the Democratic side will give you the figures on that, and if he does you can go back to your books and find out he is pretty nearly always right in the figures that he gives on the needs for the next biennium, and I want to assure the Senator from Schuylkill that we Democrats are just as anxious to give an example of Democracy at work as he is or his colleagues.

Mr. President, I do not entirely approve of certain individuals who are out on the radio blasting the national policies of this great country, certain individuals who give aid and succor, if you please, to enemies of this democracy, but I hear no voices raised against them, I do not hear anybody condemning Lindbergh for showing how democracy does not work; I do not hear them squawking about Bert Wheeler for showing how democracy does not work, but in our little way here we are trying to function as representatives of the people and if we do not agree with the Governor you can rest assured that is an honest disagreement. We have had examples of his figures and they have not been right and so I say we are entirely right in assuming he is not right this time.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 680, (HOUSE BILL No. 869)

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, on page 5 of today's Calendar there appears Senate Bill No. 680, (House Bill No. 869), which is the bill referred to by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro, and which he was informed had passed out of the hands of the Senate, but we now find it has not.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 680, (House Bill No. 869), entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six, (P. L., First Extraordinary Session, 47) entitled "An act to enable persons, associations, partnerships, and corporations to borrow money and secure the repayment thereof by the execution and recordation of chattel mortgages on any chattels of any kind or description providing for bonds with confessions of judgments; regulating the assignment and release of such mortgages; and designating the operation and effect of the lien of such mortgages" by extending, enlarging, and removing the limitations from the class of those who may become chattel mortgagees; by making further provision respecting fees of recorders of deeds in connection with chattel mortgages, extension of the lien of said mortgages and defaults of said mortgages; and by defining violations and prescribing penalties.

was passed finally, June 11, 1941.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to,

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The Chair is informed this bill is now in possession of the Senate, and therefore the motion just adopted was in order.

The bill will appear on the Calendar for June 12th on final passage.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS THE SENATE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask permission to address the Senate.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman from Philadelphia, will proceed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I did not have the privilege of listening to the address by the Governor to the General Assembly this afternoon but I had the equal privilege of attending the graduating exercises of my son, and at the same time I took great pride in the fact that one of Pennsylvania's officials was honored, extremely honored, by the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I refer to Dr. Shaw, our Department of Health Director; I was pleased at the fact that one of the things stressed in conferring the degree of Doctor of Science upon Dr. Shaw was in connection with his activities relative to pulmonary tuberculosis in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and I want to say I was proud of that fact, even though he happens to be of opposite political faiths.

So, Mr. President, while I missed the pleasure of hearing the Governor's address, which I would have listened to with interest, I had a compensating pleasure.

I have hurriedly glanced over the address of the Governor, which the Senator from Delaware was kind enough to give me, and I find while I was paying very little attention to the matters that have been referred to on the floor, which I think have no place in any fiscal program of the state, there are one or two important points which the Governor made which do require particular attention.

I do not claim to be a financial wizard, I do not claim to be anything but human, and if I am human I err, can err.

If there has been a mistake in any of the figures of the budget, they ought to be corrected.

I do think however, Mr. President, this address by the Governor requires consideration before answer, and I am going to read the address and I am going to try to see if by making an answer I can help solve the problem. I do not propose to get into a personal argument with the Governor because, as I have frequently said, while this Governor is not my candidate, he is my Governor and I propose to treat him as long as it is humanly possible upon that basis.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Thursday, June 12, 1941, at 12:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6:35 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Tuesday, June 12, 1941, at 12:30 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, June 11, 1941

The House met at 12 m.

The SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Donald McFall offered the following prayer:

O God, our Father, as we awakened this morning, may we have looked out of our windows and beheld once again the beauty and glory of this new day. As we find our life bound up in the lives of other men within our State and Nation, may we realize that there are those who hunger and toil, those who suffer, those who aspire to greater heights, yea, all manner of men are linked up in the making of that which we call civilization.

Many long for a sign of recognition or a revealing word of kinship. Teach us, that we may come to know how Thy spirit flows through those who strive with love and intelligence to overcome misery and injustice. Be Thou our helper in the tasks that are ours this day. This we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Messrs. McDERMOTT, RAUSCH and LICHTENWALTER offered a privileged resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1941.

The members of this House who served at any time during the period from 1915 to 1923, or during the legislative session of 1935, will not fail to remember the gentleman from the Second District of Lehigh County, the Honorable Albert E. Rinn, father of grade crossing and Sunday trucking legislation, whose poise and eloquence in support of the measures which he so valiently championed have inspired many an otherwise tedious legislative session.

Our esteemed ex-member was born at Easton on June 6th, 1864, and has devoted twenty-two of his seventy-seven years to the service of his community and State. At the present time he is serving as the "venerable squire" of Upper Saucon Township in his county of Lehigh where he conducts one of the busiest justice of the peace offices in the county; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby congratulates its one time member on the occasion of his recent birthday, and for his splendid record of service and achievements. We wish him many years of continued health and happiness, in which to further serve, accomplish and enjoy life, and be it further

Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the Honorable Albert E. Rinn at his home on Rural Route No. 3 out of Bethlehem.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 14, 1941.

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recognizing the duty of the Commonwealth to provide for its unfortunate blind citizens has provided for the payment to them of a pension; and

Whereas, The Federal Government contributes toward the care of blind persons but insists that moneys apportioned to any state for such purpose must and can only be contributed on a basis of the actual need of the blind; and

Whereas, This Commonwealth receives no part of Federal funds apportioned for blind persons because its system of assistance for the blind is on a liberal pension basis instead of the basis of actual need as required by the Federal Social Security Act; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House concur), That the Congress of the United States is hereby memorialized to amend the Social Security Law of the Federal Government by providing for the contribution of Federal funds for assistance to blind persons to states which provide for such assistance either on a basis of actual need or on a pension basis; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy hereof be transmitted to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States and to the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from this Commonwealth.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I understand that the Democratic members of this House are about to hold a caucus. I realize that this is a rather unusual and unique request, but I am practical; I have been around here long enough to know that when the majority Members of this House in caucus decide to do a thing it will be done, and if they desire not to do a thing it will not be done. So I am going to call upon them now to take into consideration a thing that has seemed to me to be of great importance to many people of Pennsylvania. I call your particular attention to the fact that this coming Friday is Friday the thirteenth, and that it in fact will be a "Friday the Thirteenth" to about eighteen thousand people in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania because it will be a payless payday to about that many people in Pennsylvania.

Some time ago, near the end of the biennium, when it was evident that there would not be a complete program put through in time to meet the appropriations at this payday there was introduced in the Senate by the gentleman from Dauphin, Senator M. Harvey Taylor, a bill providing for the payment of employes during the month of June. This is not an unusual proceeding. Whenever the session has extended beyond the end of the biennium this procedure was followed. It was followed at times when the House and the Senate were of the same political faith; it was followed back in 1935 when this House was Democratic and the administration was Democratic and the Senate of Pennsylvania was Republican. It is a practice which as long as I know has always been followed.

As far as I can recall there has never been an occasion when the House and the Senate or either of them deliberately enforced upon the employes of this Commonwealth a situation wherein they would not be paid. This does not apply only to the few employes in the departments here on the hill; it applies practically to all the employes of the Commonwealth throughout the state. In fact there are 9,200 of them employed in the various institutions under the Department of Health and Department of Welfare throughout the state. Most of these employes, I would say at least seventy-five per cent of them receive $2,000 or less. Probably fifty per cent of them receive $1,400 or less. It now is practically impossible to pass the bill by the thirteenth, but if action is not taken in this House immediately upon this bill the payment will be delayed a considerable length of time. Many of these people need their money and need it badly. I am not concerned about the Governor or the judges or the heads of departments; they represent a very minor group and they can afford to live a few days or a few weeks without receiving their pay promptly without any great amount of inconvenience, but the clerks, the stenographers, the people on the Hill and throughout the Commonwealth, other than in this section, need the money; they are looking forward to their payday, they have commitments, their insurance is due, they have bills to pay, their rent is due, many of them need money to keep on living. Many of them have families; many of them are supporting large families on small incomes.

You people on the other side have on numerous occasions during this session indicated that you feel that many of them were not receiving proper wages, and you are saying that they ought to receive more. I say to you in a spirit of fairness, to Republicans and Democrats both, isn't it right and fair and just that that bill, which has passed the Senate and which is now resting in the Appropriations Committee should be reported out so that these people will receive their pay? Goodness knows it is bad enough under any circumstances to use one bill to try to force another bill, but, Mr. Speaker, I feel in appealing to the fairness of the gentlemen on the other side that certainly we consider it a most reprehensible thing for any party to use a bill of this type to try to force any other sort of issue. This is the thing to meet the situation; it is a practice which has been followed and which is not new, and I appeal to you as gentlemen, to your fairness, to your sincerity, to your honesty of purpose, and ask you whether you in your caucus will not decide that that bill to pay these employes during the balance of this month, and as soon as possible—their pay that will be due on Friday—that you take action and report it, or see that it is reported out to the floor of the House.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in reply to the words of the gentleman from Dauphin may I state that the condition in which the administration finds itself is due solely to the inactivity on the part of the Senate. There is legislation and has been legislation over there sufficiently long for the Senate to have acted, in which the problem on Friday the thirteenth of June or any other subsequent payday in this state, funds would be not only available, but the authority would be existing to utilize those funds to pay all the workers on the payrolls of Pennsylvania. Why the Senate has taken the time that they have is beyond me. Why they do not desire to approach the problem and solve it is beyond me. However, I firmly believe that I can clearly see what is in the mind of the Governor of Pennsylvania when in a newspaper conference he made the statement that he felt it perhaps would be advisable to hold the legislature in continuous session.

It becomes more and more apparent to me, Mr. Speaker, that the Governor of Pennsylvania has that particular thought in mind that he shall keep the legislature here in continuous session, and to that end he has sought to have legislation passed that would take care of our problems bi-monthly or monthly or perhaps daily.

Now, as you men know and as I know, that never was anticipated or thought of under the fabric of our constitution. It was always the thought that the Legislature would meet once every two years and there proceed to pass legislation that would take care of the problems of the state for the two year period. Apparently the Governor in spite of the Constitution of Pennsylvania proposes to this House and to the Senate that we are going to pass piece-meal legislation and remain in continuous session. He does not desire to face the problems, he does not apparently desire to sit down in conference to work out the problems. He intends to tell us from day to day what we shall do. That is what is endeavored to be done in this particular piece of legislation, and if he and his employes find themselves in this precarious position of which the minority floor leader spoke, may they turn to the Governor of Pennsylvania and may they turn to the Republican Administration and point the finger of accusation and ask why they are unable to function as they say they are.

I am saying to the Governor and to the Republican administration that we have a problem here in Pennsylvania. The Democratic party wants to sit down and work it out; they are anxious and willing to sit down and work it out, and once the Senate moves, I am hopeful, Mr. Speaker, that they will consent to sit down and work out the problems. Until then undoubtedly the Governor of Pennsylvania will be asking us from day to day to pass piece-meal legislation to solve a problem that we should solve in its entirety and not in parcels.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I think it is absolutely unfair for the gentleman on the other side to stand up on the floor of this House and have the audacity to suggest that the delay is the result of the Senate's inactivity. Does the gentleman mean that the general appropriations bill that was held by his own committee for one hundred seventeen days and referred to the committee of the Senate on May twenty-eight should be enacted into law, gone over by the Governor and signed before the end of the biennium, or even before this date? If the gentleman does, he is suggesting a thing which has never happened in the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and which he knows would be the most impossible sort of situation. Not only that, here we have a bill referred to the Committee on Appropriations in the House on May 28th. It is the General Appropriations bill. In order to hurry it, it was that very day reported from committee; that very day read for the first time, and then sent back to the committee for consideration. You talk about taking it as it is. Why gentlemen, you had lying on your desk until yesterday your tax bills, your tax anticipation note bill. They were in the Senate as I pointed out yesterday for a period of three days. The least possible number of days for any bill to be in the Senate under our constitution. Yet the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, has the audacity to stand up and tell you Democrats and us Republicans and expect the people of Pennsylvania to believe that the Senate is responsible for the situation which has been created.

I say, Mr. Speaker, let us get that picture. You all know that for 112 days you had the budget, you had the Governor's picture, and within less than a week before the end of the biennium you put out what you called an alternative budget, and the truth of the matter is, as was admitted on the floor of this House, certain items were omitted from that budget. Certain items which should have been in it were omitted from it. Estimates of revenue were increased, taxes reduced, surpluses ignored, deficiency appropriation bills which had been passed entirely ignored, and then you say, "Well the Senate ought to act on this." Act how? Take your suggestions? If they would there would be available for relief approximately $90,000,000, which as you know and I know will not be enough to see us through to the next regular session of the Legislature.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman comes along and says, I imagine he means the Senate, is holding up the General Appropriation Bill, and that it could have been passed and signed by the Governor in order that they get their pay on June 13. Yet, as it was argued out here before and as the gentleman well knows, and as the Constitution and the laws of this Commonwealth very properly provide, the Governor should have at least thirty days after the session to pass upon the bills, and the General Appropriation Bill should be one of the last that it should be necessary for him to pass upon.

Now, that is the situation. It is known to anybody that knows anything about the government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is known by you men who have been around here, it is known by you men who have studied the problem, and yet they put out on May 28 the General Appropriation bill, and now refuse to make any appropriation so that the functions of the government may be carried on. Then you say that it is somebody else's fault. Gentlemen, I appeal to you in fairness to take the facts,—all you need to do is to take your histories and look up the dates, don't take my word, don't take the word of Leo Achterman, but look up the facts, look at the books and you will see what the story is; you will see that there is no responsibility on the part of the Senate for delaying this situation. You had it within your power to say whether the employes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are going to receive their pay or not during the month of June. I suggest to you that you get that bill out in fairness to those employes.

Your heart bleeds for those employes, particularly when there is any bill up regulating the salary of any employes. Here is your chance without additional cost to the Commonwealth to show your sympathy for them. Just lay aside politics, forget any squeeze play that there might be in anybody's mind, and do what you know, what must be known down in the heart of every one of you is the right thing to do, the only honest thing, the only correct thing that you can do with that bill today, and that is to report out the Taylor Bill from the Committee on Appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, of course, the remarks the gentleman made are similar to those he has been making for some time on the floor of this House. My answer is the same, that it so happens as to the legislation we passed to the Senate was legislation that every Member of this House and every member of the Senate knew we intended to act upon; it was only a question of what amendments might be inserted in the particular bills. The study of revenues, the study of expenditures, all of the studies presumably were being made by the proper committees.

I am confident now that the Senate Committee on Finance did not make a study. They assumed apparently we would accept at face value the figures inserted by the Governor of this Commonwealth, although every Member of this House and I presume every Member of the Senate knew that the majority party had no intention of doing that very thing.

Now the gentleman says "Let us refer to the records to see whether the Senate is moving rapidly." Then he points with great pride to the fact that the tax measures were passed or else amended in the Senate, and they said "Here are the important measures." Certainly nothing extraordinary, Mr. Speaker, in the fact that the Senate did act on those measures promptly. They knew they were in this House and they knew they were coming over in some form. They apparently had made some study of that subject and were able to act. Why couldn't they act on the other measures? They had the same knowledge on the other measures that they had on the tax measures. The very fact, Mr. Speaker, that they sent that bill back so promptly is indicative that the charge I am making against the Senate is a proper charge; they help substantiate that charge by the manner in which they acted.

Let us go a step further, let us take the tax anticipation notes. In that particular bill the amount of revenues to be collected by the State was inserted. Was the Senate unable to act on that? Oh no, they moved promptly on that. How and why? Did they make a study or did they report it out in the manner that the Governor wished them to do without a study?

In other words, Mr. Speaker, what I am pointing out to the Members of this House is this: that the Senate when it wishes has made its study; when it is not desirous of reporting, apparently it has not made a study.

They can not take such a position; they can not blow hot and cold at the same time; they either made a study or let the Governor make it for them. If they have let the Governor do it, then let them proceed to amend the bill and put the legislation in a position where we can go into a conference.

No, I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that is not the intention of the administration. The intention of the administration is to hold the Legislature in session until it has broken the power of the Legislature to the will of the Governor. I am saying that we are going to face this problem not piece-meal, Mr. Speaker, but in its entirety, and we are calling upon the Republican party to insist that their administration do that very thing, meet the entire problem and not offer piece-meal legislation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in my first remarks I intimated that I did not feel it was right to definitely state that I felt this particular bill was being used by the leaders on that side as a squeeze play on the Senate of Pennsylvania. The answer of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, has definitely proven to you men, to the Republicans on this side and to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that that is the purpose.

Now, I think, Mr. Speaker, that is reprehensible. I think it is reprehensible for a man to get up here on the floor of the House and state in the debate on this question what has been stated, because it indicates clearly and conclusively one thing, and that is that the only reason for holding this piece of legislation in this Committee is to use it as a squeeze play on the Senate. You are not going to pass upon this piece of legislation on its merits, and you admit that if you continue to hold it in committee.

You are using eighteen thousand employes, about twelve to fifteen thousand of whom are receiving two thousand dollars or less, many of them supporting families, and you are going to use them; you are going to say to them, "You are going to have payless paydays for days or weeks for sure, and maybe for months." Why? "In order that we can use your pay as a lever to force the Senate of Pennsylvania to accept our program."

Gentlemen, that is not fair, that is not honest, that is not sincere. You are not passing upon this legislation, if you do this thing, on its merits. I have confidence that every one of you individually, dealing with the merits of this bill in your committee, would favor putting it out. I have confidence in your individual sincerity and honesty of purpose, I have confidence that you individually would all, and do all agree with me that this bill ought to be passed and passed promptly.

I cannot conceive that you as a group will continue in the thought that was expressed today and continue to use this bill as a lever to force your program, your impossible program may I say, down the throats of the Senate. If your program has merit, I think that merit ought to be sufficient to support it, but I do not think, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that you ought to bring into this case these employes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in an effort to force this thing on the Senate.

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, on page 1546 of the Legislative Journal appears the following question which was asked of me by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Marshall M. Cohen:

"Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Cooper, recall how he voted on House Bill 226?"

Mr. Speaker, at that point in the Journal appears the following:

"Mr. Cooper. Mr. Speaker, I most assuredly do. I voted in the affirmative".

Mr. Speaker, the remarks attributed to me in the Legislative Journal were not uttered by me, but were uttered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goodwin, who thought at the time he was being interrogated.

I therefore ask that this correction be made in the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE EALY. Mr. Speaker, Members of the Joint Session, I have the honor and pleasure of presenting the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Honorable Arthur H. James who will now address you.

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR ARTHUR H. JAMES

GOVERNOR JAMES, Senator Ealy, Speaker Kilroy, and Members of the General Assembly:

Pennsylvania at this moment is in the most tangled financial situation of its history.

With a few exceptions, Pennsylvania's departments of government have not one cent of money legally available to conduct any of the normal State activities. This is true of all of the various General Fund departments of State Government.

We have no money legally available to meet State pay-rolls due next week.

We have relief funds for only two weeks.

Except for relief checks, these departments are operating entirely on credit.

This situation is due to the deliberate action of a group of Democrats in the House of Representatives who bottled up the budget program when it was presented last February 3rd, and kept it under lock and key until the closing days of May, when it was changed to a form not acceptable under the laws of this Commonwealth and passed by the House too late for the necessary and proper corrections to be made before this biennium began.

The effects of the long delay in budget action were to compel the State to stop payment on a long list of subsidies and appropriations to prevent our running out of cash. The inconvenience and distress which resulted was, of course, obvious to those responsible for the delay in action on the budget. Such considerations, however, did not sway the so-called Democratic leaders from their policy of delay.

The agencies which have suffered and who are entitled to know where the responsibility lies include the following:

The first, second and third class school districts;

About 200 State-aided hospitals and homes;

State-aided welfare institutions;

Fourteen State-aided universities and medical colleges.

Checks long overdue could have been sent these institutions weeks and months ago, if the Democratic leadership of Pennsylvania's House of Representatives had acted at the proper time. For example, thousands of teachers' salaries are still unpaid as the result of the vicious political tactics of these representatives of Pennsylvania's men and women.

We now are at the deadline at which immediate action is necessary if the Commonwealth is to keep the pledge made by both Republican and Democratic members of the Legislature, when we borrowed from certain funds to maintain relief—the pledge that the money would be returned during the current month. These moneys were to have been returned by means of the sale of tax anticipation notes.

Legislation for this purpose was introduced long ago. As is necessary under the law, these bills set forth the official estimate of revenue. The super-optimists of the lower House insisted on increasing these estimates.

The bonds cannot be sold with any except the official estimates of revenue printed in the bill. The entire tax anticipation note program has been held up wilfully and deliberately, for political purposes, on the sole excuse that certain individual Democratic leaders valued their own estimates of revenue ahead of the official estimates of the State.

The amount of money being held up as a sop to the pride of the Democrats, who have tried to second guess the Department of Revenue on estimates for the current biennium, reaches the staggering total of $85,445,700. All of this money either is payable now or will be payable by the time tax anticipation notes can make it available.

The separate items involved are as follows:

Motor License Fund	$47,550,000
Liquid Fuels Tax Fund	11,000,000
Liquor License Fund	7,250,000
Fire Insurance Tax Fund	2,300,000
State School Fund	2,000,000
Sinking Fund Payments on Veterans
Bond Issue	2,150,000

The specific amounts already overdue, and which can only be paid when the tax note program is agreed upon, are as follows:

Second and Third Class School Districts	$2,426,455
First Class School Districts	1,475,814
State-aided Universities and Colleges	2,492,596
State-aid Hospitals and Homes	2,248,164

In addition, the Deficiency Bill calls for appropriations of $4,552,671, most of which goes to distressed school districts and which also can be paid only from money raised by sale of these tax notes.

Repeated conferences have been held in the past few days, attempting to obtain from the Democratic Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, his consent to the passage of the enabling legislation. This compromise was with the thought of issuing the notes against taxes already in effect—a total of approximately $373,000,000. This would be more than ample for the proposed tax sale.

The Chairman emphatically declined to accept the official estimates which must be the basis if the notes are to find purchasers.

Thus far he has refused to accept any except his own estimates which, of course, have no standing at law. He has refused to agree to the program even when his suggestion that the enabling act carry the words "at least" before the official estimates of revenue was accepted by the Republicans.

I will leave to some further occasion discussion of the question whether this line of conduct is service, politics or sabotage, but in the meantime I must warn this legislative body that today is the last day on which action can be taken without violating our specific pledge as to the time when these borrowings are repaid.

I find no indications thus far of any intention of those who hold the reins for the Democratic party to budge an inch from their outrageous position. They appear to think that they have the Administration by the throat and can dictate to it with impunity. Their position appears to be that they will not vote for a balanced budget. My position is just as definite.

Since there appears to be no limit on the duration of the deadlock, the time has come when it is necessary that we find means of financing certain customary activities of the State and such special defense services as may be cared for.

Therefore, I am recommending to the Pennsylvania Senate that it immediately proceed with the passage of the General Appropriation Bill in the form in which it came from the House. This bill can be finally passed this week and thereby be ready for my signature next Monday or Tuesday.

This bill provides for "the ordinary expenses of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the Commonwealth, interest on the public debt, and the support of the public schools."

Its passage, even in the mangled form in which it was adopted by the lower House, will nevertheless furnish funds for the maintenance of most of the regular activities of State Government.

It does not include subsidies for hospitals or for educational and welfare institutions.

It does not include relief.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania must have cash, and must have it immediately, to prevent our hospitals, our universities and public schools from closing, and to give succor to our old people, our blind and unemployed.

The appropriations as listed are subject to reduction in such amounts as I deem proper. Such appropriations as have been made excessive by the Democratic bloc which has seized control of the lower House, can easily be rectified at the time I sign the bill. Appropriations which have been cut too low, or which have been deleted entirely, cannot be corrected at that time, but the omissions can be remedied by separate appropriation bills.

For example, the Democratic House saw fit to delete all funds for parole supervision. Presumably this was done under the misapprehension that if the new Parole Bill passes, the appropriation to the Department of Justice would be unnecessary. Those responsible overlooked the fact, however, that the proposed parole legislation would not take effect for a year.

Some further provision will be necessary to prevent the entire collapse of parole supervision during the coming twelve months.

Various other similar reductions and deletions should be corrected, and this can be done by means of independent or supplementary appropriation bills.

In general, it may be said that speedy adoption of this bill, without further attempts at adjusting its inequities, offers the only means by which normal and the emergency defense activities of the State can be financed at an early date.

Signing of the bill will permit State payrolls to be met with a minimum of delay.

Further, when it becomes effective, money will be made available for defense activities, such as the Defense Corps, the State Council of Defense, and certain special requirements as occur in the Department of Commerce, the Department of Health, and other administrative departments.

Embraced in this bill are the appropriations for the maintenance of hospitals under State supervision. The bill was amended in the House with the apparent intent of covering the hospitals whose taking over by the State is still under discussion.

No provision having been made by the Legislature to raise moneys to cover the $12,000,000 additional cost which would be saddled upon the State by the taking over of these institutions, and no final decision having been made by the Legislature on my urgent recommendation that the effective date of these laws be postponed for two years and, further, it appearing that the appropriations included for the purpose are inadequate to carry out this program, I shall therefore reduce the appropriations in this field to the amounts set forth in my budget message of last February.

If the Democratic leadership of the Legislature insists on its unwise determination to force this additional expenditure upon the State, in spite of the urgent recommendation of Washington that new expenditures of this nature be postponed until after the present National emergency, I must insist that revenues for this purpose be found.

Appropriations not backed up by revenues do not pay the bills. Neither do wishful thinking and kited estimates give the State one cent more of revenue.

The so-called Democratic budget is a humbug and a fraud, and those who drafted it are well aware of the fact.

It does not balance with itself.

Omissions and shortages have been brought to light totalling at least $15,800,000 of expenditures that its drafters knew were inescapable—more than twice the total of recommended tax reduction.

It calls for expenditure of many millions of dollars more than revenues which are in sight.

It cannot be given serious consideration in its present form, because it does not balance with itself and does not balance with the official estimates of revenues, by which myself and other State officials are bound.

Its discrepancies have been pointed out to its authors and they have done nothing to correct those discrepancies.

Talk of a "compromise" in this matter is absurd. Where is the room for compromise between a bridge which is long enough and a bridge which is too short?

A balanced budget for Pennsylvania at this time would bridge the chasm of deficit and lead the way to major tax reductions in 1943. A red ink budget, such as the Democratic leadership is urging, would leave the State so far in debt at the end of the current biennium that any major tax reduction program would be impossible.

Enactment of the General Appropriation Bill, as recommended above, does not solve the budget problem. It does not appreciably change that problem. The same basic issues remain:

Shall Pennsylvania's books be balanced, or shall we keep a mortgage upon our house of government?

I was elected by a huge majority when I ran for Governor on a pledge of putting the State's books in balance and of working for major tax reductions. I believe that the vast majority of the men and women of this State still believe in and support that program.

I do not believe that the shallow political tricks of a handful of ambitious Democratic bosses are fooling any one but themselves.

I do not propose to surrender to any shotgun tactics on the floor of the House.

My record as Governor during this period of international crisis, my response to President Roosevelt's plea for unity, the non-partisan and non-political measures I have taken in any field touching upon National Defense are well known to everyone.

I have carefully refrained from injecting political considerations into the situation.

Republican members of both Houses of the Legislature have followed the same course.

Our efforts to be impartial have been taken advantage of, not by Democrats in general so much as by small groups of officials and so-called leaders who came back into power as deadhead passengers on the Roosevelt Express. Their abuse of power is approaching a scandal.

I have refrained from engaging in a public battle over this matter in the hopes that the saner counsel which unquestionably comes from the public-minded rank and file of the Democratic party would convince their so-called leaders that this is no time for them to play political parlor tricks with the taxpayers' money.

It now appears that certain of these leaders have the bit in their teeth and are deaf, not only to common sense, but to the wishes and welfare of the rest of their party, both in Pennsylvania and at Washington.

If they are determined to sell their party down the river by insisting in their efforts to wreck the state's financial program, I suppose that I, as a Republican, should not object to this form of political suicide on their part.

But as Governor of a great state, faced with some of the most serious problems in our history; as a public official seeking earnestly and diligently to serve the general need in an hour of crisis; as a Republican who has sought sincerely to respond both to the imperative need and the President's explicit call for unified non-political action in this time of emergency—in a word, as a man who takes his oath of office seriously, I do object to any course on anyone's part which can undermine the Commonwealth's ability to do its full share in whatever tasks are before it.

I propose to fight out the cause of a balanced budget along lines of economy and good governmental house-keeping, if it takes all summer.

Reluctant as I am in this period of emergency to embark on what will inevitably turn into a political battle, I wish to serve notice on those whom I believe to be putting partisan greed and political chicanery ahead of their sworn duty to State and Nation that, in the cause of sound finances for the men and women of this Commonwealth, there will be no surrender.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE EALY. The Chair wishes to express the thanks of the General Assembly to the Governor for his message on the fiscal policies of the Commonwealth.

The purpose for which the Joint Session was called has been consummated. The Joint Session is now adjourned. The Senators will return to the Senate Chamber and resume their duties.

THE SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) IN THE CHAIR.

RESOLUTIONS

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No 1088 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. SAMUEL ROSE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1941.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 1088, Printer's No. 313, entitled "An act prohibiting the employment of or the acceptance of employment by any female for the purpose of tending bar over which bar alcoholic malt or vinous beverages are sold excepting on sale licensees and the wives of on-sale licensees providing penalties for a violation thereof repealing all inconsistent legislation," be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1259 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. CHERVENAK offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1941.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 1259, Printer's No. 555, entitled "An act authorizing the creation of and providing for and regulating the maintenance and operation of a county employes' retirement system in counties of the fourth class imposing certain charges on counties and fixing penalties", be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I listened with attention to the remarks of the Governor made a short time ago. Unfortunately I have not had in advance a copy of that address, therefore I do not intend at this time to answer in detail the remarks of the Governor, but I do feel that in passing, Mr. Speaker, some sort of a brief digest of his remarks should be made.

Perhaps the one thing that struck me most forcibly was the Governor's comment about the huge majority he had when he ran for Governor, and the intimation that it could be done again.

I couldn't for my party, wish it better luck than that this same man should head their ticket. I say, Mr. Speaker, if he did he would know the esteem and the confidence that the people of Pennsylvania have in him. Let me point in his same speech to the reason why I make those remarks. You will recall that he said, "If you want tax reduction in 1943." That is the same old battle cry of infamous misrepresentation and deception. You recall and I recall this same Governor that just addressed you went throughout the state of Pennsylvania talking about the savings he was going to make and pass on to the people of Pennsylvania.

Well, Mr. Speaker, he did not do it in 1939 and he has admitted he is not going to do it in 1941, unless the Democrats force him to do it.

Then he raises the battle cry of politics. Did you ever hear more politics from the rostrum than you heard today? How and why? "Oh," he says, "we'll give you tax reduction in 1943." Do you think the people of Pennsylvania believe that he is sincere in that statement, when you already have the story of what he did in 1939 and what he wants to do in 1941? When he wants something, he is strong on the promises, but after he secures what he wants he forgets his promises.

Perhaps, Mr. Speaker, there is something else of importance that the Governor said. I listened with approval when he told the Senate they ought to go to work. I checked on the Senate. You know, Mr. Speaker, with this serious financial problem he speaks about that the Commonwealth is faced with, the Finance Committee of the Senate did not meet today and has not been doing much meeting since we first came here. Yes, I can say to Governor James, "You had better tell your Finance Committee of the Senate to go to work." There is the crux of our problem and there, Mr. Speaker, in that Senate lies the political problem today.

Then this governor says this, "Our hospitals don't have any money." What has that got to do with it under the circumstances? We have not met our February payments nor any other payments that this selfsame Governor should have seen that his budget of 1939 would make it possible to pay? What has he done with the moneys that he so confidently told the people of Pennsylvania he had for the operation of this government and for our hospitals and colleges? Passing it on to 1941. No, that's no answer. Mr. Speaker, the charity specified is hospitals. He knows that he should have made those payments in February as well as the later payments, and he knows he should have had his budget in such condition that he could make those payments.

Now, Mr. Speaker, raising the same battle cry of politics, he said, "Why it's the budget of 1941." The budget of 1941 should pay the bills of 1939? He is not going to fool anyone with that statement.

Then as to the question as to whether or not we are willing to talk to the Governor. Today is the first that I learned that the Governor approved the story or rather the message that was delivered to me only yesterday afternoon. Only about twenty-four hours before this crisis did I learn that this Governor was willing that his offices and departments cooperate on the problem, would be willing to study it. Apparently he has changed his mind somewhat on that now, but only yesterday the minority leader of this House approached me and told me that the Budget Office and Revenue Office was willing to meet with us to discuss this problem? Then I inquired about the Senate and learned what? Well, maybe and maybe not; at least no one has been designated there, and our conversation was left with the understanding that the Senate would be contacted for the purpose of their designating someone to study with us and with the Governor's office.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you in sincerity and I ask the people of Pennsylvania, does that sound like a man desirous of solving the problems of Pennsylvania or does it sound like a man who is desirous of raising a political flag, claiming that he is crucified but unwilling to step forward to study? Infamous deception from beginning to end, I brand that speech.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I intend to make no reference to the political remarks which were made by the gentleman from Monroe, nor do I expect to make any detailed answer to the statement which he just made concerning the proposed conference. As a matter of fact, I think some of the things which led up to that, and the discussions which were held between himself and myself were of a confidential nature, and fearing that I might divulge something that would not be fair to either him or to me or to the administration, I am not going to make any further reference to that point.

As I understood the Governor's speech and as I recall it, he made references to the conferences which were held between the gentleman from Monroe and the Budget Secretary concerning the Tax Anticipation Notes bill. I made reference on the floor of the House a number of times to the importance of that bill, and I have related in detail the history of that bill and of the action of the Democratic party and their delays concerning it. I shall make no further reference to that. I did make reference to the amendment which was suggested and which it was understood by me have been agreed upon between the gentleman from Monroe and the Budget Secretary some time ago. If that amendment had been adopted, the Tax Anticipation Notes bill could have been passed, and the pledge that was made by this House of Representatives to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania could have been kept. But they have refused to agree to take action on the amendment about which the conferences of the gentleman from Monroe and the Budget Secretary were held. That is the matter to which the Governor was referring in his speech when he talked about the conferences between the Democratic floor leader and the members of his cabinet.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I just wish to clarify the remarks made by the gentleman from Dauphin as to whether or not I have violated a confidence with regard to a proposed meeting. The remarks, may I say, Mr. Speaker, when Mr. Woodside approached me I was not informed that the suggestions were made in confidence. . . .

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker . . .

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman to yield for a moment until I make a statement on that point.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe yield for a moment?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I did not say that the gentleman had violated a confidence. I said that I did not care to go into the matter further because I feared I might violate a confidence with him and with the administration and therefore, I would not make any further statement on it in public until I talked about it in private with him. I did not accuse him of violating a confidence.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Dauphin. I misunderstood him.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Donald McFall offered the following prayer:

Spirit of the Living God, fall fresh on us this day. Teach us, we pray Thee, that vengeance does not belong to man, but to Thee. Help us to see in these bitter days of suffering, when the love of the Man of Galilee is mocked in the utter disregard of human life, that more than ever it is our duty to bear witness to Him who is the world's hope and the world's peace.

Open Thou our eyes to the Light that in earth's darkest hours never has gone out. May we recall to mind how in every age Thy ear has never been closed to the voice of man nor Thy arm shortened when man asked deliverance.

We pray too that we might have a proper sense of our reliance upon Thee, O God, our Father. Hear our humble prayer, we beseech Thee. Amen.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of information.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the number of leaves of absence that have been asked for, would it be possible to hold a session tomorrow?

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not know. The Chair will inquire how many leaves of absence have been granted. Thirty-five members have asked for and been granted leaves of absence.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I have heard various members speak of polling the House. I rather imagine it would be a good idea to have the Clerk read the appropriate rule of the House to instruct us all as to the proper method. I feel that having such a motion made, we all ought to have our memories refreshed on it and I ask that the Speaker instruct the Clerk to read the appropriate rule relative to the polling of the House.

The SPEAKER. House Rule 9 is as follows:

"A majority of all the members shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members as required by the Constitution."

The Chair will also read Rule 11:

"If, at any time during the session of the House, a question shall be raised by a member as to the presence of a quorum, and it shall be shown that a quorum is not present it shall be the duty of the Speaker to announce the result of the roll call and note the absentees, after which the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no excuse or insufficient excuse is made, may by order of a majority of the members present, be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms."

The Chair will also read Rule 12:

"While the House is under a call, only members and officers of the House shall be admitted, and no member shall be permitted to leave the House, unless by a majority vote of the members present."

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the reading of the rules about absentees reminds me very much of the story about the preacher preaching to his congregation about the people who do not come to church.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the Speaker for informing the Members of the House. I hope it will not be necessary for us to use the information which the Speaker has just imparted to us.

RESOLUTION

INVESTIGATION OF STATE POLICE

Mr. HEATHERINGTON offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent that it be read.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1941.

Whereas, On March 28, 1940, Rachel Taylor, a young woman student at the Pennsylvania State College, was attacked and murdered in the vicinity of State College; and

Whereas, In spite of more than a year's continuous investigation by the Pennsylvania Motor Police and by local authorities, the perpetrator or perpetrators of this brutal crime have not yet been apprehended; and

Whereas, Within the past year a dozen or more women, in or about the borough of State College, have been attacked by an unknown assailant or assailants, possibly the same who committed the murder of Rachel Taylor; and

Whereas, An attack upon a woman, in State College, was made as recently as two days ago; and

Whereas, The immediate apprehension of the person or persons responsible for these crimes is absolutely essential for the protection and safety of women residing in State College and vicinity; and

Whereas, The failure to apprehend the person or persons guilty of these attacks may well render many parents unwilling to have their daughters attend the Pennsylvania State College, at State College; and

Whereas, It would seem that the perpetration of as many as a dozen different attacks upon women, in a comparatively small community within a short period of time, should afford a sufficient clue as to the identity of the person or persons involved, so that the Pennsylvania Motor Police could solve one or all of these crimes; and

Whereas, Colonel Lynn G. Adams, Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, has journeyed to State College on various occasions and has assumed personal supervision of the investigation into these crimes; and

Whereas, The complete failure of the officials, under his supervision, to solve even one of this series of attacks, together with the fact the Senate of this General Assembly has refused to confirm his appointment as Commissioner, would seem to indicate that the initiative, ability and persistence of Colonel Adams as a police officer and particularly in connection with the investigation of these assaults, should be carefully investigated; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House appoint a committee of five members of the House, whose duty it shall be to examine into the manner in which Colonel Lynn G. Adams has conducted the investigation of the numerous attacks upon women in the vicinity of State College during the past fifteen months, for the purpose of determining whether the failure of such investigation to produce any definite results in even a single case is due in any degree to inadequate, indifferent or careless supervision. It shall be the duty of the aforesaid committee to conduct its investigation immediately and to make its report to the House of Representatives before the adjournment of this session, together with its recommendations as to any further steps which might be taken to end this outbreak of criminal assaults in the vicinity of State College.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SHAW asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Welfare to meet during the session of the House.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Messrs. SARRAF, SHAW, HEATHERINGTON, SHAFER, GOODWIN, BOIES, POWERS, YESTER, HOLLAND, REYNOLDS, MORAN, BAKER, O'NEILL, HARKINS, BENTLEY, VERONA, KEENAN, HARMUTH, MOONEY, LEONARD, MIHM and BROWN offered a privileged resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1941.

In Pittsburgh, on the 13th of June, 1883, there was born to Antoine Gerard and Amelia Schleicher Gerard, his wife, a son, now known to his colleagues in the General Assembly and to his best of friends as Anthony J. Gerard, frequently called Tony.

On account of the death of his father, it was necessary for him to leave school at an early age for employment as a tailor's apprentice. He later mastered the art of garment designing. And is now president and treasurer of Associated Tailors, and doing business under the trade name of Mitchell the Tailor in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Gerard is active and much interested in a wide variety of civic and fraternal activities and a former councilman of his home town, Mt. Oliver, Allegheny county. He is a member and Past President of the Alsace-Lorraine Society of Pittsburgh, an organization of which his father was one of the founders and its first President. He is a member of the Mt. Oliver Volunteer Fire Department, a fourth degree member of the Knights of Columbus, and also holds membership cards in the Fraternal Order of Eagles, the Loyal Order of Moose, the Knights of St. George and St. Joseph's Lyceum.

In the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Mr. Gerard is Past Exalted Ruler of Knoxville Lodge No. 1196; Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Southwestern Pennsylvania District; and Present Trustee of the Pennsylvania State Elk Association.

In 1912, Mr. Gerard married Della K. Wolfersberger. They have two children, a son, Edwin, and a daughter, Dolores; be it therefore

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby extends hearty congratulations and best wishes to their fellow member from Allegheny; and hopes that he may have many more years in which to continue the services to his fellow men which have been his life's practice. To you, Mr. Gerard, we wish a very happy birthday; and be it further

Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be prepared by the Chief Clerk and transmitted to the Honorable Anthony J. Gerard, Member of this House on his 58th birthday, June the 13th, 1941.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gerard.

Mr. GERARD. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I have just been handed a slip which indicates that this House will adjourn sometime today. It is quite unfortunate that this resolution could not be held over until tomorrow because tomorrow being Friday the thirteenth, my birthday, it would indicate that I have been quite lucky and that I have been privileged to live these many, many years, and being privileged to live those many years, I have gained the friendship and association of a lot of fine men in the General Assembly, both Republicans and Democrats. I certainly want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for this kind expression of congratulation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. SPEAKER. Yesterday the Governor suggested to the Senate that they pass the General Appropriations bill in the mangled form in which they had received it from the House, because he felt it advisable that the functions of the government be continued even though the General Appropriations bill was not in proper shape for final enactment. As a result of that the Senate immediately reported that bill out for second reading, and I understand that it has been or is about to be read for the second time today. The majority in the Senate has made definite plans to meet tonight at 12:01 a. m. in order to pass the bill finally, which would mean that it would be returned here for signature by the Speaker in the presence of the House.

The bill cannot be put on the Governor's desk unless this House meets tomorrow. It was therefore the request of the Governor and the suggestion of the Senate that the House meet tonight, either shortly after midnight, or if it will be more convenient to the Members of the House, tomorrow morning, at least for a sufficient time to have the Speaker sign the bill in the presence of the House, so that it could be put on the Governor's desk for action.

I understand that the Rules Committee of the House, which as you all know is composed of Members of the Democratic party, has refused the request of the Governor to sit tomorrow and finally act on this piece of legislation, and that a motion to adjourn until Monday, will shortly be made. Of course I could ask for the floor to make a motion to adjourn until tomorrow but I will not do that because of the courtesy of the Speaker and the majority floor leader in permitting me to make this statement and in not immediately recognizing somebody on the other side to make a motion to adjourn. But I call upon all the Members of the House to vote down the motion which I understand will be made to adjourn until Monday evening at 8 o'clock, with the idea that it would be followed by a motion to adjourn either until shortly after midnight tonight for a meeting that would be on the calendar day of tomorrow, or tomorrow morning, whichever would be more convenient to the House, in order that the General Appropriations bill could be passed tomorrow and laid on the Governor's desk for action. As was pointed out yesterday by me on the floor of the House and by the Governor subsequently in his message, tomorrow will be the normal day for the payment of the employes of the state, and they cannot receive their pay tomorrow.

Furthermore, if the House adjourns until its usual time on Monday evening, it would be impossible to sign the bill, of course, until late Monday night or Tuesday morning and therefore it would be impossible for the pay checks to be given out to the employes or for the other functions of the government to be carried on until Tuesday or possibly Wednesday.

For that reason it seems to me it is a mighty small matter for this House to stay in session for the sole purpose of having the Speaker sign the bill in the presence of the House and permitting us to get it on the Governor's desk in order that the normal functions of government can be continued. I feel that the majority of this House is not giving the proper consideration to this matter, if they refuse to meet tomorrow, and if they insist upon adjournment today until Monday night.

May I say further, Mr. Speaker, I think if they do that it is just another indication, another bit of evidence, another guaranty that it is the Senate which is doing everything in its power to bring about prompt action on legislation and the adjustment of the differences between the Houses, and that it is this House that in every conceivable way is throwing a monkey wrench into the works. I think it is another indication that every effort is being made by the majority in this House to delay, hamstring and interfere with the normal processes of this state and particularly as they relate to the financial program. I feel it is a mistake for this House and for the majority of this House to adjourn at this time until Monday and leave the General Appropriations bill in the air. I do not know whether the Senate will have their meeting at 12:01 a. m. tonight as planned if the House adjourns or not. There certainly can be no advantage in doing so because if the House adjourns it will be impossible for the bill to reach the Governor's desk before Monday night at the earliest. The Senate customarily meets at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon and therefore it would have an opportunity to pass the bill and put it on the Speaker's desk at the same time. Whether they will pass it at the session tomorrow or whether they will pass it at the session on Monday, I do not know. Their plans may be changed, but I have the authority to say definitely, Mr. Speaker, it is the plan of the majority of the Senate, and by the majority, I mean the Republican Members of the Senate, to meet at 12:01 a. m. tonight.

Mr. Speaker, I have just been advised that they have already adjourned to meet at 12:01 a. m. tomorrow. They plan to do that in order that there will be no delay whatsoever in this matter. I think if the House insists upon adjourning it is absolute and conclusive proof as to where the responsibility lies for delay in these matters.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I can answer the gentleman from Dauphin in just a very few words. The Governor indicated in his message yesterday that he would like to have this particular measure so that he could act on it by Monday or Tuesday of next week. May I assure the minority of this House that our adjourning now to meet next Monday will not delay or prevent the Governor from receiving this measure so that he can act on it next Monday or Tuesday. In other words, we are doing nothing that the Governor apparently had not anticipated. The Governor assumed that the legislation would be in such shape that it could be laid on his desk on Monday or Tuesday. Adjournment at this time is not going to prevent the measure from getting to his desk at the time he suggested or recommended. Apparently, in his statement he did not anticipate taking any action on the measure until next week and as a result no one is going to be particularly hurt; things are going to move in their orderly procedure; the Governor will get the measure about the time he anticipated and apparently there is no reason why this House should remain. Therefore, I am asking the members to support the motion to adjourn when it is made.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in answer to the remarks just made by the Gentleman from Monroe, I wish to say that the Governor now has the intention to sign the bill on Saturday if it is laid upon his desk tomorrow. He is putting aside other business and his own personal interest in order that he can give prompt attention to this matter which is so important to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I can say for the Governor, I can say for the Republican Members in the Senate, and for the Republican Members of this House that we are interested in seeing this bill enacted into law at the earliest possible moment and that we are putting aside everything else in order that it can be enacted into law at the earliest possible moment. It is the full responsibility of the majority of this House if they throw a monkey wrench into the works.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, may I say once again that the Governor does not seem to have his mind made up. He told us one thing and the minority floor leader tells us something else. Well, he delivered his official message to this House. While I do not doubt for one moment that the statement made by the minority floor leader is correct, nevertheless may I say that we should at some time or other be able to expect this Governor to really mean what he says.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to call attention to what the Governor said because again the gentleman from Monroe is misquoting him. The Governor said:

"Therefore, I am recommending to the Pennsylvania Senate that it immediately proceed with the passage of the general appropriations bill in the form in which it came from the House. This bill can be finally passed this week and thereby be ready for my signature next Monday or Tuesday."

As a matter of fact the Governor called upon the legislature to pass the bill this week. He figured it may take him until Monday or Tuesday to go over the items because as you well know there are a considerable number of items in it to which he must give attention. The Governor has been looking at those items already and figures he will be prepared to sign the bill on Saturday if it is on his desk this week, as he asked to be done in his speech.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, from the remarks of the minority leader I assume the Governor is not too familiar with the measures that are passed by this House and that he is asking the Senate to pass. But we know that the Governor knows what is in that measure. He discussed at length this particular measure, and so I assume when it does come to his desk what he does will be purely mechanical and will take but a few moments to do it. I am quite certain that the Governor is going to lose no time. He has asked that the measure be in his hands so that he can sign it on Monday or Tuesday. It will be there at that time and the Governor will find that no particular delay will be occasioned.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I only want to remind the gentleman it took him one hundred seventeen days to find out how much the appropriations for the State Treasurer, the Auditor General and the other departments had to be. I think he ought to give the Governor twenty-four hours to do it.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SARGE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lebanon will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SARGE. Mr. Speaker, is it possible and proper for a members's vote to be recorded if he does not vote until three or four subsequent names have been called?

The SPEAKER. He can have his vote recorded following the calling of the roll, if he was in the House during the calling of the roll.

Mr. SARGE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman to my right did not vote until three or four subsequent names had been called and I just wondered whether his vote should be recorded. I think, Mr. Speaker, as a matter of fact the gentleman sitting on this side of the House voted wrong.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, in order to clarify that I think what the gentleman from Lebanon, Mr. Sarge, really means is that I voted right but I was on the wrong side of the House while I was voting.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has another complaint. The gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. McLane, I understand has eight birth certificates in his hands. What a man!

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I think a gentleman from this side of the House who went over to that side and had courage enough to vote over there ought to be entitled to two votes.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, how is the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. James, recorded as voting?

The SPEAKER. "No midnight singing," I believe he said.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman voted "aye". He said "no midnight choruses," so he voted "aye". I ask that he be recorded in that way.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to give a bit of information to the House prior to the remarks of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. James.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker,—

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware Mr. James yield?

Mr. JAMES. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe will proceed.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I presume when a man is released from a serious promise he need no longer keep that promise. At least as far as the promise he made to me is concerned, I release him.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker, I am afraid I cannot accept the release. What Mr. Achterman really gave me was an interpretation. I indicated by wish that there should not be any midnight choruses in this Session as there were in the last Session. The discussion started entirely off the question with which we now are concerned, but I realized very soon that the very clever gentleman from Monroe, the majority floor leader, had me in something of a box, but in the end I secured from him an interpretation that there could not be any midnight choruses if there were not midnight sessions. I think the gentleman released me by an interpretation rather than by a direct promise that I could be excused. However, I ask and I hope that my vote is recorded as "No".

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the Members that what has occurred here is not establishing a precedent to permit debate during the calling of the roll.

The motion having been agreed to (at 2:17 p. m.) the House adjourned.
